FORTUNE OF ALAMEDAN SOUGHT

Drowned on Lusitania, Leaves Thousands in Various Cities

Thirty Thousand Found in New York; State Dept. Aids Quest

Mrs Lora M. Medbury of 1622 Clinton avenue, Alameda, and her son and daughter, have commenced proceedings to recover the $150,000 fortune of Morris Benjamin Medbury, a dealer in antique jewelry, who was lost on the Lusitania.

Medbury had been missing from home for more than two years and during that time his family in Alameda had heard nothing of his whereabouts. The first word received was in a message from the Cunard company after the loss of the Lusitania and later information from the authorities at Washington.

Attorney Milton Shepardson of this city, an old friend of the family, is in New York, where he went a week ago in behalf of Mrs. Medbury and children to take steps to secure the fortune. Word received from Attorney Shepardson today is to the effect that he has located $30,000 on deposit in a New York bank and that he has learned that large sums are deposited in London banks. It is also probable that other New York banks hold considerable of his fortune which may exceed the $150,000 estimate.

STATE DEPARTMENT AIDS.

The State Department at Washington has also taken a hand in the matter and photographs taken of Melbury shortly after he sailed on the Lusitania for passport purposes, which were filed at Washington, are now on their way to Alameda through the mails for the purpose of identification.

Medbury was a globe-trotter who, in following his occupation as a collector of antiques, visited practically every country in the world. He was in Alameda last a number of years ago and for two years his family heard nothing from him.

Knowledge of her husband's wealth did not come to the widow until she learned of his death.

"It is pretty good news to us," declared John P. Medbury, the son, today. "As soon as we learned through the newspapers that my father had been lost on the Lusitania we took steps to investigate. Attorney Shepardson went to New York for us. We have had word from him, but it was not until today that we learned that he had succeeded in locating a fortune for us.

"It is not likely that we will have any trouble in establishing our claims to the estate."

BODY NOT FOUND.

Mrs. Medbury is planning to leave for New York and Washington as soon as she receives notification from her attorney that her presence is necessary to fully establish her claims in the probate court.

So far as the family have learned the body of Medbury was not recovered from the sea, or if it was it has not been identified. In any event it is not the intention of the widow to have the remains brought to California.

A committee was appointed to confer with committees from the International Association of Sheriffs and the International Association of Railway Special Agents on a proposition to form the three organizations into a great association of peace officers.

Negroes Arrested for Taking Man's Watch

BERKELEY, May 27.—The feminine person who one dark night two months ago so coquettishly approached William Windrom on Milvia street, turned out today to have been Marguerite Wilson, a negress. The woman is under arrest in Berkeley charged with stealing Windrom's watch from his pocket.

"I am certain it was a man dressed in woman's clothing because I could smell tobacco on his breath," declared Windrom to the police on March 18th, the day of the robbery.

The clue threw the police somewhat off the track, but this morning Detective D. H. Fraser effected the Wilson woman's arrest. Windrom lives at 1634 Bonita avenue.

By Associated Press.

ROME, May 27, via Paris.—"The hour which we are traversing is painful, but our prayers will go out more frequently and more fervently than ever to those who have in their hands the fate of nations," is a declaration made by Pope Benedict in a letter to Cardinal Vannutelli, published in the Osservatore Romano, the vatican organ. Arizona Prison Board Holds Special Meeting on Appeals

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Acting upon a request from General Villa, Secretary Bryan telegraphed today to Governor Hunt of Arizona suggesting commutations of sentence of five Mexicans condemned to death tomorrow for murder.

In commenting on the cases, Secretary Bryan pointed out that Governor Hunt himself is opposed to the death penalty and that it was shown there was a large sentiment in the state opposed to it.

VILLA SENDS AGENT.

By Associated Press.

FLORENCE, Ariz., May 27.—Dr. Albert Diaz Vuzcarra, representative of General Villa, the Mexican chieftain, arrived here today to appear before the state board of pardons and paroles and plead for the lives of the five Mexicans condemned to die at the penitentiary here tomorrow. Frank Trott was the only member of the board present. Wiley Jones, state attorney general, and C. O. Case, superintendent of public instruction, the other members of the board, were unable to reach here this morning, but will arrive in time for a meeting probably tonight.

Dr. Vuzcarra brought with him telegrams addressed to Governor Hunt by William Jennings Bryan, Secretary of States, and from Miguel Diaz Lombardo, Villa's minister of foreign relations, urging mercy for the prisoners. Vuzcarra asked for commutation of sentence, or at least a reprieve for the men, until the question of the abolition of capital punishment again can be submitted to the people of Arizona.

The board of pardons and paroles is to meet here today to consider protests against the executions, with which it previously had declined to interfere.

GOVERNOR CANNOT ACT.

By Associated Press.

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 27.—Governor Hunt, to whom Secretary Bryan telegraphed today suggesting commutation for the five Mexicans condemned to die at Florence tomorrow, has no power in the case. That was taken from him by vote of the people in the last election. The fate of the men lies entirely in the hands of the state board of pardons and paroles, which met today at Florence penitentiary to consider a large number of protests received from all parts of the country against the executions. These protests included a resolution passed recently by the Arizona House of Representatives. On the other hand the board also has a large number of communications commending its action in declining to interfere with the law of capital punishment, including a resolution adopted by the State Senate.

Terrors of Sea War Are Braved by Couple

Rickard, who was formerly editor of the Mining and Scientific Press, will have his business interests in San Francisco from now on and will again reside in Berkeley.

The Rickards left London the day after the sinking of the Lusitania. They made the voyage on the British steamer Minnehaha.

"We considered outselves fortunate," says Mrs. Rickard, "in not encountering any belligerent craft. We were all naturally in a state of unrest until we had passed the war zone, and from then on the voyage was as quiet as ever in peace time."

Fog Coming, Will Cool Us Off, Says Observer

Yesterday the mercury went to 74 degrees and jumped over the 70 mark this forenoon. This, however, is only the second day which could really be called hot, as Tuesday, while balmy, was cooled by a moderate wind.

The forecast of the United States Weather Bureau is for continued fair conditions with a drop in the mercury for the next twenty-four hours.

At noon today the thermometer at the Key Route depot at Fortieth street and Piedmont avenue registered 78 degrees in the shade. This is the highest for the season.

18 AIRSHIPS IN BIG RAID

French Aviators Attack Arsenal; Bombs Weigh Ton

By Associated Press.

PARIS, May 27, 2:37 p. m.—A French aerial squadron composed of eighteen airships, each carrying fifty kilos—110 pounds—of projectiles this morning bombarded a chemical factory at Ludwigshafen, on the Rhine, opposite Mannheim. Fire broke out in several of the factory buildings, as a result of this bombardment.

This factory is one of the most important manufacturers of explosives in all Germany. The French aviators were in the air for six hours and covered more than 400 kilometres—240 miles.

This expedition against an important German military establishment was the French reply to the attempts of German aviators on the city of Paris. This information was contained in the French official statement given out by the war office this afternoon.

PRZEMYSL SAFE, IS RUSSIAN OPINION

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27.—The Times' Petrograd correspondent says the Russian military observers consider Przemysl at the present time quite safe and think there is no reason to apprehend the development and blockade of the fortress.

The Times' correspondent with the Russian forces, in a despatch dated at Ivangored, gives a description of the Russian retreat from the Donajec to the River San.

"The German attack on the Donajec was unparalleled in history," says the correspondent. Their batteries were passed first in tiers of field guns, then in howitzers and then in the heaviest of mobile artillery, which by a torrent of uninterrupted shell fire destroyed the Russian center. But in spite of the fury of the attacks, the Russians retired undemoralised, and when the San was reached the gap was closed, the armies were stiffened by reserves, and the Austro-German onslaught was stayed. The Russian retreat as a maneuver will rank equal to the retreat from Mons.

The German check on the San appears to have been due to the impossibility of supplying ammunition fast enough, the rapidity of the Russian retirement compelling an unexpected rapid lengthening of the enemy's lines of communication. At the same time German strength, courage and persistence must not be minimized. Past experience indicates their capacity to keep coming on with apparently undiminished ardor."

NO SIGNS OF WAR SAVE FLYING FLAGS

By Associated Press.

ROME, May 26, 11:22 p. m., via Paris, May 27, 9:55 a. m.—Except for the flags, which fly not only from every house but almost from every window, Rome gives little indication of being the capital of a country which has entered upon a great war. While the entire nation was eager for the conflict, a spirit of calm confidence has followed the stormy scenes which were enacted from the time the Salandra Cabinet resigned until it was restored to power and the demonstrations of rejoicing which followed, until the opening of hostilities. It is apparent that the nation is preparing to make, without any complaint, what ever sacrifices the war may bring.

BIG BATTLE RAGES AT PLOKEN

Italians Attacking, Force Foe Across the Isonzo River.

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, Switzerland, May 27, via Paris, 2:25 p. m.—A strong Italian guard crossed the Isonzo river today after a sharp fight with an Austrian force, and arrived before the town of Monfalcone, which is 30 miles from the Austrian seaport of Triest. The first of the Austrian wounded are now arriving at the latter place.

The Italians also attacked at several points along the forty miles of the Carinthian frontier.

A battle between the Italians and Austrians now is raging around Ploken and also west of the Praedil Pass in Austria.

In Adige, the fighting has been limited to skirmishes.

Italian forces which penetrated the Tyrol at Candino and other Italian arms which captured Cormons, have reconstructed the railway and are now marching on Gorz, the capital of the Austrian crown land of Gorz and Gradisca.

Both the Austrian and Italian aviation services are very active along the frontier. Many machines have been gathered at Venice to protect that city. A Parsival airship arrived by rail at Trent yesterday from Munich, Bavaria. A Zeppelin dirigible balloon is reported to be preparing to follow it shortly from Friedrichshaven.

ZEPPELIN BOMBARDS TOWN

By Associatrd Press.

SOUTHEND, Eng., May 27, 10:35 a. m.—Another Zeppelin airship raid was made upon this town last night and one person was killed and several injured by bombs. The victim was Mrs. May Fabin, who was here on a visit.

The entire town was illuminated by the bursting of shells dropped by the aircraft.

The material damage caused appears to have been less than on the occasion of the last raid.

Some reports say that two and others that three Zeppelins took part in the raid. It is, however, impossible to give the number accurately because of the heavy clouds.

The noise of the propellers of the airships was first heard shortly before 11 o'clock. Then came at once the shock from the explosions as the bombs rained down from above. Some of the missiles were incendiary and threw out bright flares of light.

Crowds assembled in the streets of Southend to view the raiders. The only fatality, the killing of Mrs. Fabin, occurred while the woman was leaving a street car. It is recalled that on the previous raid, the only victim was a woman.

British aeroplanes went up in pursuit of the raiders, but were not successful in overtaking them.

Some time later two Zeppelins were seen over Burnham-On-Crouch, seven miles to the northeast of Southend, but no more bombs were dropped.

Southend, which is a municipal borough and popular side resort at the mouth of the Thames, forty miles east of London, has been the target of Zeppelin raiders several times in the last six months. On no previous occasion, however, have the results been serious.

TWO DEAD; OFFICIAL REPORT.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27, 11:50 a. m.—The secretary of the Admiralty has issued a statement on the Southend raid, which contrary to the dispatches, says two women were killed. It reads:

"Late last night a Zeppelin visited the east coast and bombs were dropped on Southend. The casualties reported today are two women killed, one child badly injured. Very little material damage was done. Aeroplanes and Zeppelins pursued the enemy, but the Zeppelin escaped in an easterly direction."

TURKS IN RAIN OF SHELLS

By Associated Press.

PARIS, May 27.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Athens dated May 26, says the action of the allies against the Turkish positions in the Dardanelles straits is continuing vigorously. Reinforcements are constantly being brought up.

The Turks appear to be terrorized by the incessant renewal of the attacks. These indicate to them the absolute determination of the allies to force the straits.

From time to time the British and French artillery throw a veritable hail of shells on the Turks.

BERKELEY WOMAN WANTS DIVORCE

Mrs. Frances W. Fenner, a prominent society woman of New York, who is now living at 1908 Yolo avenue, Berkeley, this afternoon commenced suit for divorce against her husband, J. Crawford Fenner, whom she charges with cruelty.

According to the complaint, Fenner has an income in excess of $10,000 per year. Mrs. Fenner says that last June, while they were in New York, her husband objected to her taking a vacation at their summer home at Star Lake and threatened to sell the place if she went there against his wishes.

She pleaded with him that she be allowed to remain until the place was sold, whereupon he replied that she certainly could not if the sheriff could keep her out.

On top of this Mrs. Fenner said her husband always insisted on taking his summer vacation at Atlantic City.

On one occasion when Mrs. Fenner desired to take a trip for her health, she says her husband abused the doctor who had advised her to do so. The couple were married at Westerly, R. I. in 1892 and have two children, Roland C. aged 20 years and Ruth W. Fenner, aged 19 years.

U.S. GUARANTY TO PRECLUDE PANICS

Supervisors of State Banks Hear Addressees on Deposit Security System.

The time is coming when the national government will guarantee the deposits of the national banks and I believe that when that day comes the proposition of a panic over a bank failure will never come upon us again. If all the money there is in hiding in this country were brought out there would be plenty of money for everyone. If we have the confidence of the people in knowing that the banks are safe there will be no possibility of a panic. I believe some system of a guarantee is coming."

J. D. Covey, bank commissioner of Arkansas thus expressed himself in a general discussion on "Guaranty of Bank Deposits" today at the third day's session of the fourteenth annual convention National Association of Supervisors of State Banks in the Hotel Oakland.

Varied opinions in regard to the working of the guaranty system were given by a number of the bank commissioners following addresses on "The Guaranty of Bank Deposits," by J. D. Lankford, bank commissioner of Oklahoma and on "Operations and Results of Guaranty of Deposits Law in Kansas," by W. F. Benson, Kansas bank commissioner.

Thomas J. Smith, banking commissioner of Kentucky, president of the Association, presided over today's meeting. Illuminating talks were given by George I. Skinner, first deputy superintendent of banks, New York; A. TaHibbard, Montana; J. W. Burke, Illinois, F. C. Williams of Vermont and other bankers. Much of the discussion hinged on whether the private banks should be exempted from the guaranty banking law. Several of the bankers thought they should, others were in favor of option while others again expressed the opinion that a general system of guaranty would come into effect sooner or later.

SYSTEM PROVES VALUE.

"Kansas banks, the majority of which have guaranty of bank deposits, sent millions of money out of the State for grain to feed its stock during the greatest crop failure in the State's history in 1913. Of nine bank failures in Kansas only one was a guaranty bank. That speaks well for the success of the guaranty system,' said W. F. Benson in his address. In all 510 of the 940 State banks enjoy the privileges of the bank depositors guaranty fund. The amount of cash on hand at this time available for paying losses is $148,553 16 and the bonds to secure this amounts to $424,701.32.

"The national system," continued Benson, "backed up by private corporations to guarantee bank deposits resulted in an increase of only seven national banks during four years' time while the State banks increased 109 during practically the same time. It is also significant that the number of banks participating in the depositors guaranty fund in Kansas is increasing. In my judgment, any State that has a guaranty law in operation should also have a law giving the power to some board to test any application of new bank characters. Such a system is employed in Kansas.

SUBJECT NOT NEW.

"The subject of guaranty of banks is not a new one. It has been discussed by Congress to some extent and at different times for the past twenty years. My information is that whenever and wherever any State by legislation has had the question before it for consideration it has always been met with almost solid opposition by the National bank and its friends. To my mind such opposition was not always induced by the lofty ideals presented as arguments by men who opposed the different measures. The guaranty law in Kansas was only put into operation after a bitter fight and has been the subject of much litigation. Its working makes a fine showing."

"The big banking corporations of New York City are against a compulsory guarantee system," declared George L. Skinner, first deputy superintendent of banks, New York, who showed why the large banking corporations considered why they should be exempt from this law." The depositors in big banking houses like that of J. P. Morgan and others are large corporations and large depositors who before they place their money in the keeping of these institutions are well acquainted with their financial standing and know the risks that are to be run.

IMPRACTICABLE TO ABOLISH.

"In our State it would be impracticable to abolish private banking. We have been unable to bring under supervision private bankers scattered through the country. I shall not say banking by individuals should be abolished.

Private bankers in the country's financial history have been able to do things for the country that corporations could not have done."

"No private corporation or banking association should be allowed to receive deposits without supervision," F. C. Williams of Vermont gave as his opinion.

"There is no guaranty system in Illinois, but I believe it is a step along the right line. Banks must of necessity hang together," said J. W. Burke, bank commissioner of Illinois.

Bank Commissioner J. D. Covey of Arkansas was of the opinion that the time was coming when the national government would guaranty deposits in national banks.

A general discussion on "Rural Credits" and "Credit Unions" occupied the attentions of the delegates at this afternoons session.

PLEADS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

MAID OF NIPPON TELLS OF ORIENT

CHRISTIAN GUIDANCE SOUGHT

MRS. PAUL RAYMOND (LEFT) AND MISS MICHI KAWAI, SPEAKERS AT A MASS MEETING YESTERDAY IN PREPARATION FOR THE CONGRESS OF MISSIONS.

That occidental schooling often destroys the best elements of the Japanese woman's character is the belief of Miss Michi Kawai, general secretary of all the Young Women's Christian Associations of Japan. This she stated yesterday in an address to several hundred women assembled at the Hotel Oakland to promote the Congress of Missions to be held in San Francisco from June 6 to 13.

"Higher education," she told them, without Christian guidance, is the ruin of girls in my country. It makes them bigoted, luxury loving, they want to spend all their time going to teas and dances, forgetting that service is the only thing."

For this reason, Miss Kawai entreated the California women to work toward securing for Japan a Christian college for women where they would absorb new ideas without losing the charm that has been their inheritance for many centuries. Some of them, she says, are no longer "humbler before men."

In spite of this, however, she emphasized, Japan's need for the higher education of women. "We must have it," she urged, "to fight the factory evil. It is sad enough to talk of factories anywhere but to talk of the factories of an un-Christian land is especially sad. I cannot tell you of the almost criminal wages and conditions in our country, where thousands of girls are making the beautiful silks you American women admire. Girls from 12 to 20 years of age are working ten and twelve hours a day. When they are so underpaid you can imagine the moral conditions."

Toward elevating these conditions a great deal has been done, said Miss Kawai, by missionary work and the Young Women's Christian Associations. "We owe a great debt to America," she added "for its workers, and especially to California. California people certainly sympathize, and they are the people to whom we must look for the future for generosity and friendship."

In the course of her speech, the noted Miss Kawai asked her audience to remember that "Japan is not a fairyland, nor a country of giants, nor a country of heroes." Japan, as she sees it, is a "very commonplace, ordinary land," inhabited by "serious and sober people." It is best known, she assured them, not by tourists and authors, but by the missionary workers who penetrate into its real life. In Korea, especially, by her statement, are moral and industrial conditions disappointing, and the degradation of men and women appalling.

A ripple of amusement swept over the conference when Miss Kawai warned any woman present who wished to be listened to with respect in her country, not to flaunt any note of red in her wearing apparel, as in Japan, only little girls, and women returning to second childhood ever venture to appear in that color. Miss Kawai herself wore sober navy blue.

"In your country a woman of sixty cannot be called old,' she added. But in my country a woman of about forty belongs to old age. At forty-one, second childhood begins. Then she may begin to wear red." After this "tip" the Japanese speaker spoke warmly of the friendliness of Japan and its peaceful attitude.

Other speakers at the meeting yesterday were Mrs. Paul Raymond of San Francisco, who as chairman for the Pacific Coast, sketched the possibilities of the congress which is to bring together for the first time the representatives of both the home and foreign missions, and Mrs. O. G. Bell who outlined the program that is to be presented. Mrs. Annie Little Barry, chairman of the Finance Committee, presided.

RECEIVER DECLARES CITY IN CONTEMPT

Marysville Has No Right to Tear Up Tracks, Says U. S. Official.

MARYSVILLE, May 27.—That the city of Marysville will be in contempt of the federal court if the order of the council to the city marshal to tear up the track of the Northern Electric Railroad Company leading off of Fifth street, between I and J streets, is carried out, is the opinion of J. P. Coghlan, receiver for the company.

Coghlan says that so long as the railroad is in the hands of a receiver the council has no authority to order its tracks torn up.

The piece of track in question is a spur that leads off Fifth street to the shops of the Yuba Construction Company, and the minutes of the council show that permission to operate over the same is temporary and not a franchise. Under the terms of the city council, the permit is revocable at any time and for this reason City Attorney Johnson says the council nor the marshal would not be in contempt of court should the track be taken up.

In speaking of the matter, City Attorney Johnson said he was willing to give the railroad company a chance to show the council that they were in contempt of court. "It is merely a bluff on the part of the company, and I do not also it will work if the council will stand for it. Under the terms of the granting of the permit permission to use the right of way is revokable at any time, and the simple fact that the railroad is now in the hands of a receiver will have no effect whatever on the case. That particular piece of track can be taken up and the federal court has nothing to say about it, and I do not think Judge Dooling would sanction the opinion expressed by the receiver. As for me, I will advise the council to proceed and then we can see if we are in contempt or not."

PREMIERS EXCHANGE FELICITIOUS MESSAGES

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27.—It is announced officially that Premier Asquith has sent a telegram to Premier Salandra of Italy, expressing his pleasure "that the long standing relationships between the two countries had ripened into a more intimate relationship."

Premier Salandra responded with the hope that "a long era of liberty and peace may be obtained in Europe."

IDAHO JOURNALIST ON VISIT TO OAKLAND

Judge J. D. Flenner, of Boise, Idaho, in charge of the publicity work for the Gem state at the exposition, is an Oakland visitor. Judge Flenner is one of the oldest newspaper men in the Northwest, having formerly been the editorial writer on the Idaho Statesman as remote as 1888, and even now occasionally taking a hand in the game, his son, Guy Flenner, being managing editor.

In addition to his editorial accomplishments, Judge Flenner is a Chautauqua lecturer of note and as an interpreter of the poetical works of James Whitcomb Riley is regarded by the latter as having an understanding of his ideas second to no man on earth. Judge Flenner appeared in the Greek theater in Berkeley several years ago in interpretations of Riley. Next Sunday he will deliver one of the hoosier's poems in the College Avenue Methodist church. Judge Flenner will remain on the coast during the exposition.

He is one of the best known men in the intermountain region and his friends stretch from Fredonia, Arizona, to the Canadian line and from the Pacific to Bitterwater creek, in eastern Wyoming. His son, Guy, who began newspaper work as a reporter and general correspondent, is looked upon as a "chip off the old block," and much of the Statesman's success is due to his personality, the Flenners, pere and fils, being especially original in idea and act.

DRAMATIC SOPRANO TO WED LOS ANGELES MAN

Miss Hattie Helen Howard, a former Oakland girl and well known in dramatic soprano, who accompanied the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps," on a lecture tour, will be married tonight at the home of her parents by the Rev. Frank L. Goodspeed. The groom is Thomas Hugh MacKechnie, a mechanical engineer of Los Angeles.

Miss Howard has appeared at the Panama-Pacific Exposition as a vocalist, and in most of the large cities of this country. She is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

LAUNDRY PERMIT NEAR PLAYGROUND REFUSED

The city council today refused to grant a permit for a laundry to be located at Thirtieth and Union streets. A protest from sixty residents of the neighborhood was filed with the council, in which it was pointed out that the laundry would be close to a city playground. The protestants were represented by Justice of the Peace James G. Quinn. The permit was applied for by P. Mavgonavc.

FAIR GOVERNESS DECEIVED

ELOPED WITH BOGUS BRITISH DUKE

ABANDONED ON ARRIVAL

Following an elopement from Manila, in which he took with him Miss Clara Mograntine, former governess, according to her complaint, the police of Oakland and San Francisco are seeking a mysterious youth who, with names and titles ranging from "Gerald Fitzgerald" to "The Duke of Northumberland," cut a wide swath in Philippine society, met social leaders of Oakland and San Francisco, and for a time was a society favorite and supposed to be one of the leaders of the English aristocracy.

Miss Mograntine on arrival in San Francisco, declared that he lured her from Manila on promise of marriage and filed charges on which the man is sought. He will face trial under the Mann white slave law if captured.

The story of the adventures of the young Englishman, according to Miss Mograntine, reads like a novel. He met her on the steamship Sierra going to Manila. There he made love to her, she declares, and induced her to return to America with him. When they first met, Miss Mograntine was a governess in the employ of Mrs. E. J. Wilson, former countess of Bois-Luey, whose child recently died of smallpox at Angel island.

Following the report made to the federal authorities, the police were notified and a search instituted for "Fitz-gerald."

GREETED IN HAWAII.

After the Sierra had left San Francisco the identity of Gerald Fitzgerald had been cabled to Honolulu, and when he stepped ashore he was met by newspaper men, who hailed him as the Earl of Glenconner, the title he had been given in the cablegrams.

"When he returned to the Sierra," said Miss Mograntine, last night, "Mr. Fitz-gerald dismissed what happened by saying the 'title is wrong, but the facts are right.'"

As the steamer plowed her way westward Fitz-gerald played with the Wilson children and helped Miss Mograntine in her teaching. They were always together and as Japan was neared he spoke of love and asked her to leave her employment and marry him. She turned a deaf ear to his passionate pleadings stayed at her post of duty, continuing to Manila. They parted at Yokohama, as she thought, forever.

Miss Mograntine found conditions with the Wilsons not altogether satisfactory after she reached the Philippines. She had taken employment after coming out of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, seeing their advertisement for a governess in the Milwaukee newspapers.

When in deepest despair in Manila, far from home and unhappy, Miss Mograntine was surprised to receive a letter from Fitz-gerald, stating he was coming to Manila. When he reached there he again, according to Miss Mograntine, made love to her and finally persuaded her to elope.

ELOPED TO HONGKONG.

This they did, going to Hongkong. Here she insisted on their marriage, but he said he wanted to be married on English soil, urging her to continue with him to Vancouver. Miss Mograntine did not know she was then on English soil. From there they sailed for Yokohama, where passage was later taken on the Tenyo Maru for this port.

'Two days out from San Francisco," said Miss Mograntine, "he told me that his true name was Alan de Corteret, and that he belonged to the British nobility, saying he had kept this from me because he wanted me to love him for what he was worth as a man and not because of his title. At other times he hinted at his title of the Duke of Northumberland."

All of his rings, stationary, linen and clothing were marked with ducal sign with a Griffin, and bore the French inscription, "Soyez Farme," meaning "Be Steadfast." He had abundance of ready money, it all being in English gold. While in Honolulu he produced several thousand pounds in gold.

When he deserted Miss Mograntine he secured a room for her at the Summerton Hotel. From there she went to the home of Mrs. F. W. Breaker, 1080 Post street, whom she met on the steamer.

REDUCE COST OF GARBAGE HAULS

New Bids Received by Council; New Plans Also Suggested.

Bids received for the work of hauling garbage 20 miles out to sea and dumping it in the Pacific ocean were received by the city council today, the lowest bid being $400 less per month than the city had to pay during the fiscal year just closing. The lowest bidder was the present contractor, the Signal Steamship Company. The bid was $2090 a month, the other bids being as follows: Olson and Mahoney, $2099, and C. F. Kilgard, $2539.

Richard Schmidt filed a proposal supplementing his offer of several days ago, in which he offered to dispose of the garbage free of any expense to the city if he should be given a contract for 30 years.

Discussion of all phases of the garbage problem was deferred until tomorrow morning, when the commissioners will sit as a committee of the whole to consider the various proposals. A large lobby, consisting for the most part of citizens of West Oakland, was in attendance today. There was no discussion, however, and they left with the statement that they will be back again tomorrow to fight it out.

The presence of the West Oakland citizens resulted from the fact that G. N. Simmons has suggested that the garbage shall be dumped on the tide flats of West Oakland as an economical and sanitary way of disposing of it, and at the same time of reclaiming the tide lands. Simmons attended the meeting of the council today, but did not make any statement, as the matter was continued.

There are three propositions before the council. The first is to continue the present method of barging the refuse to sea. This entails an expense of approximately $24,000 a year. The second proposition is that of Richard Schmidt, to dispose of the garbage in a sanitary manner free of charge. The third is that of Simmons to dump on the West Oakland tide flats, and so extend the streets out to deep water.

U. S. PROBES SINKING OF SHIP

Report on Nebraskan Reaches President, Who Has Matter Under Consideration.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Messages received by the State Department today from Ambassador Page and Consul General Skinner at London and Consul Frost at Queenstown failed to say definitely whether the steamer Nebraskan had been torpedoed or had struck a mine.

One of the dispatches says the Nebraskan's American flag had been hauled down five minutes before she was struck, although her name was painted on her sides in letters six feet high.

The report of Ambassador Page on the condition of the Nebraskan, was laid before President Wilson today. It came to the state department by cable last night and work of deciphering it was begun immediately. No intimation as to the contents of the report was given pending its review by the President.

Administration officials still awaited with unusual interest authentic advices as to how the Nebraskan was damaged. The British admiralty reported that the ship had been torpedoed, but the captain's report to his owners indicated a doubt as to whether she had been struck by a torpedo or a mine.

E. H. Duff, counsel for the company owning the Nebraskan, who visited the state department today, said the circumstances, particularly the damage to the bow of the Nebraskan, indicated to him that the vessel struck a mine. The steamship officials, he said, held the same view.

TWO SENATORS TALKED.

BUTTE, Mont., May 27.—United States Senator Thomas J. Walsh and Henry L. Myers of Montana, in interviews here, declare theer is no chance of war with Germany because of the reported torpedoing of the Nebraskan.

ATTACHE EXAMINES.

LONDON, May 27.—The American naval attache at London has been sent to Liverpool to examine the Nebraskan's hull.

Consul-General Skinner's message follows:

"Green, master of American steamer Nebraskan, in wireless, addressed to me via London, reports:

"'Nebraskan passed Fastnet Rock Tuesday, 4:33 p. m., from Liverpool bound for Delaware Breakwater in ballast. At 8:24 p. m., when steamer was about forty-eight miles west half south from Fastnet she experienced violent shock, followed instantly by terrific explosion, bursting hatches and throwing hatchbeams, cargo derricks and twisted iron into air, filling lower hold forward completely with water. Crew immediately took to boats.

BRITISH SHIPS AID.

"'After standing by ship one hour returned on board and at 10:30 started for Liverpool. About 1:25 a. m. met two vessels sent by British admiralty in answer to our wireless call. One has been in attendance ever since.

"It was dusk when the explosion occurred. Flag had been hauled down five minutes before. Steamer's name painted on both sides.'"

IN PORT TONIGHT.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, owners of the Nebraskan, received cable advices today, it was announced today, that the Nebraskan had passed Queenstown at a speed of eight knots and was due to reach Liverpool tonight.

KING OF ITALY TAKES SUPREME COMMAND; ISSUES ARMY ORDER

By Associated Press.

ROME, May 26, via Paris, May 27, 8:55 a. m.—King Victor Emmanuel, upon taking supreme command of the Italian army and navy, issued the following order:

"Soldiers on land and sea: The solemn hour of the nation's claims has struck. Following the example of my grandfather I take today supreme command of Italy's forces on land and sea with the assurance of victory which your bravery, self-abnegation and discipline will obtain.

"The enemy you are preparing to fight is hardened to war and worthy of you. Favored by the nature of the ground and skillful works he will resist tenaciously, but your unsubdued ardor will surely vanquish him.

"Soldiers, to you has come the glory of unfurling Italy's colors on the sacred lands which nature has given as the frontiers of our country. To you has come the glory of finally accomplishing the work undertaken with so much heroism by our fathers."

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, May 27, via London, 3:05 p. m.—The German army headquarters today issued the following statement:

"Regardless of their great failures of May 25th, the French repeated their attempts to break through our lines between Vermelle and the Lorette Hills. Very strong forces were brought forward for a storm attack along a narrow stretch of ten kilometers (six miles), but the attacking force everywhere was repulsed. We are in full possession of our positions. An uncommonly large number of fallen Frenchmen are lying in front of our trenches.

"Further French attacks were directed late in the evening against our line of Soucjez-Neuville.

"South of Soucjez the battle has not yet come to a conclusion.

"During a reconnoitering expedition north of Dixmude we took one officer and twenty-five Belgian prisoners.

"Further enemy advances at Soissons and in the forest of Leprete were repulsed.

"An air attack was successfully carried out by us on the fortifications at Southend on the lower Thames.

"In the eastern theater there has been no change in the situation.

"In the southeastern theater an attack by our troops progressed to the northeast of Przemysl and in the district of Stry. The booty of yesterday's results cannot yet be perceived."

BRITAIN DELAYS REPLY TO AMERICAN INQUIRY

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Delay of the British government's reply to the American government's inquiry for an explanation of the meaning of the recent admiralty order, relative to the "northabout route" around the British Isles is believed by officials here to be due in some measure to the cabinet changes in London. Ambassador Page had been instructed to present an inquiry but as yet he has not indicated when a reply might be expected.

The terms of the order drew distinctions between allied and natural merchant craft which officials here could not understand. It does not disclose that new mine fields have been placed in the ordinary routes from Atlantic ports to points in the Scandinavian countries, but declares allied vessels desiring to use the northabout route "should apply to customs, and neutral vessels must apply for permission through their foreign representatives and failing such, proceed southabout."

Officials noticed, it is said, the difference in language, "should" being applied to allied ships and "must" as to neutral vessels. They are interested to know whether the order seeks to impose upon neutral vessels restrictions as to routes to Scandinavian countries that do not apply equally to allied ships.

WILL RETAKE AUSTRIAN EMBASSY SEAT IN ROME

By Associated Press.

ON THE ITALIAN FRONTIER, May 27, via Chiasso to Paris.—The Italians, it is said, are determined to seize the present opportunity to retake the Palazzo Venezia, the seat of the Austrian embassy to the Vatican, and perhaps the most beautiful palace in Rome. It was built in the fifteenth century and belonged to the Venetian republic and thus fell into the hands of Austria.

When Austria ceded the Venetian provinces to united Italy, the Italian statesmen failed to claim the Palazzo Venezia. Warm discussions are now going on in Rome whether to make this gem of renaissance architecture into a museum or public offices.

The inhabitants of Tivoli desire to take possession of the magnificent Villa d'Este, which belongs to Archduke Charles Charles Francis, the heir apparent to the Austrian throne, with its world-famed seventeenth century gardens and fountains. The population of Tivoli has always believed that this historic villa did not rightfully belong to the House of Hapsburg, and desire now to claim it for the commune of Tivoli as a national monument.

FRENCH THANKS CANADA FOR DEEDS OF VALOR

By Associated Press.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 27.—Sir John French, commander of the British troops in France, in appreciation of the heroic work done by the Canadian expedition, has sent the following cablegram to Premier Sir Robert Borden:

"They remain in the forefront of the fight, and I feel assured that their heroism and sacrifices which are contributing so splendidly to the attainment of our immediate ends will bind us together with those bonds which are forged on the field of battle."

FLAGS OF ALLIES FLOWN ABOVE PARIS

By Associated Press.

PARIS, May 27.—The flags of the European nations allied against Germany—France, Italy, Great Britain, Russia, Belgium, and Serbia—are by the order of the French government displayed in groups over many of the public buildings and monuments of Paris.

Among the edifices thus decorated are the residence of the president of the republic, the senate, the chamber of deputies, and all the ministries.

ITALY ADVANCING TO BIG BATTLE

Two Armies Drive Forward Into Austrian Trentino and Tyrol.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27, 12:12 p. m.—Notwithstanding the superb weather, the contenders in the western arena of hostilities, realizing the terrible losses even an insignificant advance entails, have reverted, generally speaking, to the trench warfare of the winter, and it is Galicia in the east, the Dardanelles, and perhaps the Italia-Austrian frontier which are most likely to furnish spectacular developments during the next fortnight.

The Russians at last have admitted the extent of their retreat from the Dunajec to the San, but they profess that the Austro-German rush has been held up and that Przemysl is in no danger. They laud the smoothness of the Russian retirement, which they are calling as masterly as that of the allies from Mons.

The Germans and Austrians now are bringing up reinforcements and fresh ammunition and another great battle will be fought to determine whether the new lines to which the Russians have fallen back, are tenable.

Italy and Austria now are engaged in the familiar roles of issuing contradictory official communications relative to the border fighting, but it is claimed that there have been as yet no important engagements. Of the 250 miles of common frontier between Italy and Austria it is estimated that only one-fifth is of a character for critical military operations and Italy's forces now in the field are following the course dictated by geographical necessity, one army driving toward the river Isonzo and Triest and the other into the Tyrol, where the rough country precludes any decisive engagements at so early a date.

London was but little disturbed at the raid last night of a Zeppelin airship at Southend. Such raids have ceased to be a novelty.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Several German soldiers on board the North German Lloyd and Hamburg-American steamships which have been docked at Hoboken since the beginning of the war have become mentally unbalanced and have been placed in jail. King Hands Seals to New Cabinet Members

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27.—King George held a privy council this morning at which the seals and the warrants of office were handed to the new members of the cabinet. Subsequently the first meeting of the new coalition cabinet was held. The king has conferred knighthood on Frederick Edward Smith, solicitor-general in the new ministry.

Fifty German Soldiers Killed by Air Bomb

By Associated Press.

AMSTERDAM, via London, May 27. Fifty German soldiers who were passengers in a street car at Ostend were killed by a bomb dropped from an allied aeroplane, according to a dispatch from that city to the Telegraaf describing a series of air raids made by the allies' aviators. The railroad station, shipping in the harbor and houses have been damaged.

British Bombs Foil German Railway Plan

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27.—British aviators have destroyed the big railroad bridge over the Scheidt at Ghent, besides wrecking the railroad station and freight depots, says a Rotterdam dispatch to the Mail. The raid is believed to have spoiled German plans for a new railroad center at Ghent.

PLAN NEW LICENSE LAW FOR THE MOVIES

An ordinance defining motion pictures and reducing the licenses thereon will come up for second hearing before the city council in June, at the request of Senator John B. Stetson, attorney for the Motion Picture Owners' Association. The proposed ordinance will be discussed in detail at that time. The present ordinance covers theaters, circuses and motion picture theaters under one head. The motion picture men have asked for a reduction in their license fee.

The new ordinance would provide license fees as follows:

Seating capacity, 1000 or more, $100 a year.

Seating 400 to 1000 persons, $75 a year.

Seating 400 or less, $50 a year.

TISZA EXPLAINS AUSTRIA'S STAND

Hungarian Premier Delivers a Stirring Speech Before the Chamber of Deputies.

By Associated Press.

BUDAPEST, May 26, via Amsterdam and London, May 27.—Count Stephen Tisza, the Hungarian Premier, today delivered a stirring speech before the Chamber of Deputies. He explained Austria-Hungary's position toward the Italian demands during the last four weeks and received a tremendous ovation when he closed his peroration with the following declaration:

"We conducted our negotiations with Italy in the belief that it would be impossible for a state calling itself civilized and which was allied to us, to attack us while we were at war, all the more so as we had offered her everything.

"We shall now, more than before, astonish the entire world with the spectacle of our power of action, virility, unity and resolution. The Hungarian nation, united with all the peoples of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy and with our powerful ally, will wage war for the last breath against all the devils of hell, and force victory from fate."

Explaining the negotiations with Italy, Count Tisza said:

"The latest speech of the Italian Premier, Signor Salandra, contained three accusations. The first was that the ultimatum to Serbia upset the equilibrium of the Balkans. It is generally known that we gave a distinct declaration to all the great Powers that we desired no territorial changes whatever. The assertion of the Italian Premier, therefore, is a notorious untruth. (Great applause.)

SECOND ACCUSATION DENIED.

"The second accusation was that we altered the spheres of influence in the Balkans. This assertion is somewhat incomprehensible. As regards the Balkans we always took the standpoint that no division of the spheres of influence was possible; that we were interested in the entire Balkans, but claimed no hegemony whatever.

"Signor Salandra's third accusation was that we violated the triple alliance treaty because we neglected to come to an agreement with Italy regarding our ultimatum to Serbia. The only mention of an antecedent agreement with Italy in the triple alliance treaty states specifically that this was required only in the event of the alteration of the status quo in the Balkans. Until a few days ago no Italian statesman asserted that we had violated the treaty by omitting a previous agreement. In the conversations and exchanges of notes between Austria-Hungary and Italy during the months following the Serbian ultimatum, the idea never arose that Italy saw in our procedure any violation of the treaty.

LEADERS FAVOR LOYALTY.

"All the leading personalities in Italy repeatedly and warmly expressed the wish that Italy, even though abstaining from the conflict, would nevertheless remain loyal to her ally."

This statement of Count Tisza caused great excitement throughout the house. The Premier then described some phases of the negotiations regarding the compensation offered for Italy's neutrality.

"We proceeded," he said, "from the standpoint that the vital interests of Austria-Hungary and Italy were identical and that we must make some sacrifice for the common good. But Italy's counter proposals were absolutely impossible of acceptance."

Count Apponyi, speaking in the name of the Independent party, endorsed the Premier's attitude, saying:—

"While my party has reserved the right to criticising the government, we join whole-heartedly in the declaration that Italy had not the shadow of a pretext in the events for her procedure. We identify ourselves not with the political policies of the governmental party, but with the duties which the present situation lays upon us, and the entire fatherland."

LONDON PRESS STILL ATTACKING KITCHENER

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27.—The Daily Mail and the other papers known as "the Northcliffe press" continue the persistent campaign devoted to justifying attacks on Lord Kitchener on the question of the supply of ammunition. Taking as their text the constitution of the new national ministry, they point to the unexpected strength and tenacity the Germans are displaying in all theaters of the war and the necessity of the heaviest sacrifices if the war is to be brought to the desired end.

The Times in an editorial says:

"The mistakes and shortcomings will be quickly rectified. The scales are falling from English eyes and the country looks the situation in the face boldly and without dismay."

The Mail in a similar editorial says:

"We can recruit almost as many men as the Germans can and we shall need them if we are ever to accomplish the march to Berlin so loudly boasted of by optimists a few months ago."

The Mail strongly advocates recourse to the United States for ammunition supplies and says:

"The Germans have complained bitterly of the efficiency of American shells turned out by American bedstead makers. It is calculated that there are no fewer than 17,000 metal working businesses in the United States alone that could help us in the manufacture of war munitions."

COUNTESS OF CARDIGAN DIES.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27.—The Countess of Cardigan and Lancaster, whose first husband, Lieutenant General, the Earl of Cardigan, led the famous charge at Balaklava, is dead. A few years ago she wrote the reminiscences of her own romantic career, containing piquant gossip of many notable figures of the Victorian era, which created a sensation.

TEUTONS CHECKED, IS SLAV CLAIM

Assert They Have Situation in Hand Now, Despite Activity of Germans.

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, May 27, via London.—Although German activity continues in Central Galicia on both sides of the San river between Jaroslau and Przemysl, the Russians assert they now have the situation well in hand. They state that the German drive from Gracow through Galicia and also the parallel movement on the left side of the Vistula, which reached the Kielce and Radom districts, have lost their impetus and that the Russians are now ready to take the initiative. Less optimistic observers believe the checking of the German move is due to the necessity of bringing up fresh supplies of ammunition, after which their aggressive will resume its former intensity.

In the district between Przemysl and the Dniester marshes, the Russians already have begun a successful advance, capturing a number of small villages on the left bank of the Dniester. On the right side of the river the struggle of the opposing forces still swings forward and backward without definite gain for either side. On Monday the Germans captured Russian trenches near Slonsko, following up an intense artillery fire with a bayonet charge. The Russian troops, however, recovered the trenches on the same day.

On the Dolina-Kolomea front there has been a violent and prolonged artillery duel without change in the positions of either side.

The Russians estimate that more than 7000 prisoners have been taken between the Vistula and the Dniester in the last three days.

Scandinavians Will Be Strictly Neutral

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 27.—Sweden, Norway and Denmark have sent to Italy, Germany and Austria following their declarations of war formal notification of the Scandinavian nation's determination to maintain strict neutrality.

RUSSIA WARNS BUYERS OF BONDS OF FRAUD

NEW YORK, May 27.—The Russian embassy at Washington caused announcement to be made here that "all offers of Russian treasury bonds that do not come directly from the leading banks of the United States are absolutely unauthorized and valueless, being without the knowledge of the government and such negotiations will be entrusted solely to the special representative of the Russian minister of finance, Gregory Wilenkin."

In explanation, the embassy says it considers it necessary to make this declaration in the name of the Imperial government in order to prevent possible misunderstandings based upon misinformation.

WORKS WANTS BAN ON ALLIES' TRADE

Thinks British Blockade on All Foodstuffs for Germany Warrants Action.

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—United States Senator John B. Works declared last night in an address here that the government should place an embargo on shipments of war munitions to the allies while Great Britain maintains a blockade of Germany against American goods.

"While the balance of trade between the United States and Europe will amount to $1,000,000,000 in our favor by the end of the financial year," said Mr. Works, "only a limited number of big business men are profiting by it. When England blockaded Germany against foodstuffs we should have said 'If you blockade the people of Germany against our people, we will place an embargo against the shipment of arms to you and your allies.' The British blockade destroyed our trade with Germany and we have been furnishing war materials to other belligerents. This is not neutrality."

Senator Works said he awaited with some apprehension and anxiety Germany's reply to the American note because the country may be placed in an unfortunate position of having to either back down or fight, and should not be forced to do either.

BRITISH COURT TO JUDGE SHIP CASE

American Packers Requested to Have Counsel at Hearing Next Month.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Ambassador Page cabled Secretary Bryan that Sir Edward Grey had given assurances that prize court proceedings in four of the American meat cargoes destined to European neutrals, but held up in British ports, would proceed without delay on June 7th. Sir Edward Grey requested that counsel for the packers be present. Alfred Urion, general counsel, is preparing to sail Saturday. Secretary Bryan in making public the announcement today, said it was the result of negotiations here between Mr. Urion and Arthur Meeker & Co. and British Embassy officials.

Conference concerning 27 other cargoes continued here today.

BARNES WOULD FORBID MINIMUM WAGE LAWS

By Associated Press.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 27.—William Barnes Jr, former chairman of the Republican state committee, introduced in the state constitutional convention yesterday a proposed amendment intended, he said, to be a "complete definition by the constitution concerning the powers of the legislature in matters that are socialistic."

Among the legislative acts now permitted which Mr. Barnes would prohibit are:

"Enactment of minimum wage laws.

"Granting to political parties of preferred positions on primary ballots.

"Enactment of laws regulating the rules of procedure of political parties, except to provide for publicity of receipts and expenditures, and for penalties against fraud and corruption within such parties."

AUTO TAKEN; SO ARE BOYS.

The police last night rounded up four newsboys who, it is said, had taken an automobile belonging to N. Schmitz, 467 Hudson street. Several of the boys were intoxicated when captured, the police allege. They will be charged with taking an automobile without the permission of the owner and those who are under age will be certified to the juvenile court.

BROKERS OPPOSE ANTI-USURY BILL

Object to Law Now Up to Governor for His Signature.

"The anti-usury bill now before the legislature, limiting loan associations and brokers to 1 per cent a month interest, is bound to hurt us to an extent. The harmful effect will vary according to the amount of business done by mortgage firms and by the nature of the loans," remarked a loan broker today.

Local loan associations, mortgage brokers and pawn brokers have been following closely the attempts made in the legislature to curtail their business, and the anti-usury bill, of which Senator W. E. Brown of Los Angeles is the author, and which has been taken under advisement by the governor, has excited much comment.

"Dealers in personal property may find a means of offsetting the effect of the bill to a certain extent by buying outright instead of taking goods on loan as at present," said one loan agent." This plan might be satisfactory in the case of small deals, but it is questionable whether customers with valuable property would agree to sell on the understanding they could buy it back again."

SMALLER SUFFER MOST.

"Mortgage loan brokers will be badly hit by such a law. Those who conduct large businesses, however, would probably manage to get along on even a one per cent interest basis," another broker gave as his opinion.

"The smaller firms would probably suffer most, by those I mean the men whose business is not large enough to permit of their accepting a low rate of interest.

"We are united in our condemnation of this proposed measure which is aimed to cripple us."

The bill which was attacked from many angles at a long hearing before Governor Johnson at Sacramento yesterday is the culmination of a fourteen years' fight to enact a usury law in this State, and it was the last bill to pass the Legislature at the 1915 session.

Opposition was voiced at the hearing by attorneys and representatives of savings banks, building and loan associations, farmers' loan associations, mortgage loan brokers, remedial loan associations and public utility corporations which have to float bonds.

ATTACK OTHER SECTIONS.

The attack did not bear strongly on the reduction in the interest limit from 2 per cent per month to 12 per cent per annum, but mainly instead on a subsidiary section, limiting the amount to be received by the lender for appraisements examinations, charges and commissions to one-fiftieth of a loan under $1000 and one-fortieth of a loan over $1000.

The strongest and most persistent arguments were leveled especially against the clause prohibiting any fee or commission whatever in procuring loans for a shorter period than six months.

Thet opponents of the bill set forth that through the subsidiary clauses it would be detrimental particularly to loans on country properties, and that its net result would be to increase the rate of interest on all loans.

They held that the cost of investigating properties preliminary to making loans, and other items of expense would more than wipe out a $20 allowance on a $1000 loan, so that the net result would be in increase of the interest on all loans.

The bar to fees or commissions of any kind on loans for a shorter period than six months would result in greatly reducing the number of short term loans, it was claimed.

ENDANGERS ASSOCIATION.

Judge Frank J. Murasky of San Francisco, on behalf of the Remedial Loan Association, which, he declared, was competing with a benevolent purpose against the pawnbrokers, argued that the enactment of the bill would endanger the existence of the association.

Attorney C. F. Cutten, representing the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, argued that the provision against commissions would militate against the underwriting of bonds, such as the $150,000,000 issue of P. G. and E. General and Refunding bonds, where the company did not receive the par value of the bonds.

Senator W. E. Brown, author of the bill, met the arguments against the bill at the close of the hearing by saying:

"Whenever a humanitaran measure of this character comes up, the question is asked what does it cost?" said Senator Brown. "There never has been a bill that has met with so many obstructions.

"If you knew the abuses practiced by the loan sharks, I do, you would forget your fears as to technicalities, and urge the signing of this bill. Forty-two States have laws similar to this, and 30 or more have laws more drastic.

"I am pleading for the man in adversity, for the thousands who are being gouged by loan sharks."

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

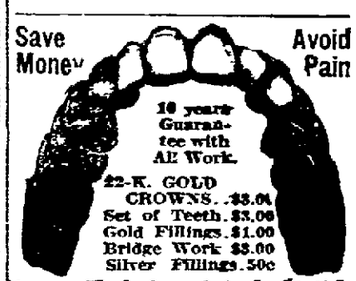

The best things for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

REPORT REVEALS NAVY WAR GAME

Superiority of "Enemy" in Units Brought About Failure of Defense.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Superiority of the "enemy" in units representing fast and heavily armed battle cruisers, coupled with weather conditions favorable for an attack, brought about the failure of Admiral Fletcher's defense of the Atlantic seaboard in the naval war game which closed Tuesday, with Rear Admiral Beatty's invaders in a position to establish a base in Chesapeake Bay.

The story of the game as told in reports of the commanding officers to the Navy Department today revealed that Admiral Beatty, with a theoretically stronger force, engaged the main body of the defending fleet last Thursday and destroyed about half of Admiral Fletcher's scouts while easily eluding the supporting dreadnaughts. Then, when Admiral Fletcher drew off to guard against a movement against New England or New York the "enemy" swept southward prepared to establish a base of operations by landing an expedition from his transports, and at the same time faced northward with sufficient force to deal with any squadrons the defenders might send against him.

Admiral Fletcher's defensive campaign was described as a good one, but he was handicapped not only by the weather and lack of speedy scouts with long range guns, but by inability to have submarines on the scene when the final test against the enemy came.

Wilson Welcomes Big Chinese Delegation

WASHINGTON, [illegible]—Interest in the future of China was expressed by President Wilson in welcoming the commission of Chinese businessmen touring the United States to study commercial activities. Headed by Kai Fu Chak, the Chinese minister, the delegation was received in the blue room of the White House. Each member of the party was personally introduced by the minister.

Spokesmen for the commission told the President they brought greetings from the Chinese Republic to the President and people of the United States and that they would endeavor to make their republic a real sister. Replying, President Wilson said: "It is not a mere form that I go through in expressing to you our very cordial welcome to the United States. I think I can say to you with the acquiescence of all my fellow countrymen that our interest in China is not merely a commercial interest, and is not mere professional interest. The people of the United States are deeply and sympathetically interested in China and in the unlimited future that lies before your great republic.

"We have, of course, naturally rejoiced to see you adopt a form of government which seems to us the best vehicle of progress, the republican form of government.

"My welcome is hearty and I am sure that every true American will wish to co-operate with me and join me in this welcome."

THREE BROTHERS IN COURT AS ACCUSERS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—With the three brothers of the slain man, all members of the police department, sitting at the prosecution's table, the trial of Carl Fisher and Otto Wolters, accused of the murder of Patrolman Edward Maloney on the night of April 20, began before Superior Judge Cabaniss this morning. District Attorney Charles Fickert is prosecuting the accused men in person and they are being jointly tried. Ranged about Fickert were Corporal Thomas Maloney, and Officers John and Bernard Maloney. A fourth brother is a member of the Denver police department.

The defendants are being represented by Judge Fairall and claim that the policeman's death was due to accident. Maloney stopped the two men who were on their way to commit a saloon holdup. He searched them for weapons. During a struggle with Fisher he was shot and killed. The morning session was occupied in obtaining a jury.

CHICAGO MAN VANISHES, POLICE TAKE TRAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Thomas May, a resident of Chicago, who with his wife has been stopping at the Hotel York, Oakland, while seeing the Exposition enroute to the Antipodes, has strangely disappeared.

May came over to San Francisco yesterday morning intending to go to Pier 26 and check his baggage on the Steamer Maitai which was to have carried himself and wife to Australia this morning. He did not appear at the dock and his trunks also failed to arrive.

Mrs. May, alarmed, notified the San Francisco police. May is 52 years old, 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighs approximately 175 pounds.

PORTO RICAN TESTIFIES.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—J. G. Bills Jr., commissioner of labor of Porto Rico today continued his testimony before the Federal Industrial Relations Commission as to labor conditions in the island. He declared that conditions were bad but every effort was being made to improve them. President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor and other officers of that organization also testified.

SEEK FUNDS TO RECEIVE GUESTS

Alameda County Women Plan Extensive Affairs for Fair Visitors.

Asking that the county furnish funds for the entertainment of women guests at the Panama-Pacific Exposition by Alameda county women, a delegation representing the Alameda County Women's Auxiliary of the exposition this morning appeared before the committee of the whole of the Board of Supervisors. Mrs. C. S. Chamberlain acted as spokesman and the others included Mrs. A. S. Lavenson, Mrs. Arthur Thomson, Mrs. Charles King and Mrs. Isaac Requa. The women declared that on June 21 it was intended to entertain the wives and daughters of the Exposition Commissioners at an elaborate function, and that entertainment for the women in the party of the Governor of New York was also planned.

They will furnish estimates of the money needed as a basis for another discussion, at which the matter will be finally settled.

"There is imperative need of this work," declared Mrs. Chamberlain, "if we are to keep abreast of the other counties. In Los Angeles the sum of $350,000 has been set aside for such a purpose. Of course, we cannot afford this, but it is desirable that we make a good showing, for the sake of our county." The matter will be taken up again next Thursday.

ASK CELEBRATION FUNDS.

Charles Gorman, M. G. Callaghan, F. A. Leach Jr., Charles J. Heeseman and others appeared asking a $5000 appropriation for the Alameda County Day celebration at the Exposition on June 10. A requisition will be filed with the board Monday at which time final action will be taken.

Details of the remodeling of the county exhibit at the Exposition were discussed, a brass rail and decorations being ordered. A request came in for the repair and additional features asked for the Alameda county wheel. It was suggested that the Auditorium, the Sixteenth street depot and other depots be placed on the great pictoral wheel.

"Hadn't we better put the Altamont station on, too?" asked Chairman Murphy. "I move we leave the wheel as it is."

MURPHY HUMOROUS.

A further request that oil tenders be made for the miniature locomotives on the tracks around the wheel was also read. "How about the uniform on the brakeman?" asked Murphy. That could cost money, too!"

No action was taken on the wheel plans.

Request for a room in which to establish headquarters was filed by the new weights and measures department. This will be taken up later. Report was also read to the effect that the infection reported by Dr. James Cone at the emergency hospital, which was a result of work in the hospital, could not be classed as an industrial action, Assistant District Attorney Manley Clark reporting that Cone is not entitled to compensation. A resolution was drafted authorizing the auditor's office to prepare next year's county budget.

RANCHMAN WITNESS AGAINST LOTTERY MEN

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—P. M. Fawcett, said to be the owner of a valuable ranch near Whittier, will be one of the principal witnesses in the pending cases against alleged lottery men here, according to statements made today by the federal officials. Fawcett was arrested yesterday on a complaint issued after detectives had found a letter supposed to have been written by Louis Fitzpatrick of San Francisco in which the statement was made that Fawcett might have any amount of money desired if he wired for it.

Indictments of two or more of the men arrested last week in connection with the operation here of the Hermosillo Lottery Company of San Francisco, are expected Friday, according to Clyde Moody, deputy United States district attorney. The federal grand jury will begin investigation that day of the charges that Lawrence Sullivan, W. J. Danford, W. H. H. Young and a number of other men used the mails to further the opreations of a lottery.

Some of the men accused, it was stated, will testify. The filing of indictments would have the effect of postponing the preliminary hearings set for next Saturday.

Postal inspectors said Fawcett made a statement today in which he declared he had been induced by Louis Fitzpatrick to go to San Francisco to act as a financial agent of the Louisiana Lottery Company, but that he had quit last April after having been "skinned alive."

During the two months he was in the lottery company's office Fawcett is quoted as having said that he never saw more than $1000, although the concern was supposed to be paying $50,000 in prizes monthly.

Federal authorities indicated they would concentrate attention on Lawrence Sullivan, W. J. Danford, the men arrested in San Francisco, who are regarded as the principal defendants.

Among those who finish at this time is Miss Minnie Whang, a native of Korea, and Miss Marie Pauline Haerle of Germany. The remaining eleven are natives of the United States, and eight are from California. Sunday night Rev. John F. Wilson will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at his church, Clay and Larkin streets. Tuesday night at 8, Rev. Geo. W. White, D. D., member of the National Deaconess Board and pastor of the First Methodist Church, Oakland, will deliver the commencement address at Wesley church, San Francisco, Hayes and Buchanan street. President E. R. Willis will give out the diplomas at that time.

Pleasant, Iowa; Mrs. Mary Phoebe Potter, Fairoaks, Clara Isabel Raynor, Winton; Lela Ruth Sauder, Germantown, Pa.; Pearl Edith Spafford, Grangeville; Minnie Whang, Kyo Dong, Korea; Ada Whitlock, Arroyo Grande, Cal.

LAST CHANCE TO SEE CONVICT SHIP

Get Tribune Coupon and Visit Ancient Vessel Before It Leaves Oakland.

Recently The Tribune made arrangements with Captain D. H. Smith of the Convict Ship Success, on exhibition at Oakland, whereby its readers by presenting a coupon with 15 cents at the ticket booth of the Convict Ship, obtains full-paid admission to the vessel, the regular price of which is 25 cents.

The coupon first appeared Tuesday afternoon; on that day hundreds were redeemed and Wednesday morning, before the ship opened, there were dozens of coupon holders on the wharf waiting. Throughout the day there was a steady stream of visitors.

The old Convict Ship is perhaps the most interesting and educational exhibit that has ever been seen in Oakland. More than 40,000 people from Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond have visited her in the past three weeks. The great success of the coupon indicates also the popularity of the ship and should prove to advertisers that The Tribune reaches the masses and that announcements in its columns are read and quickly acted upon. To give every reader of The Tribune an opportunity to inspect the ship, Captain Smith will honor the coupons for May 27, 28 and 29. The Convict Ship closes down finally Monday evening next and will leave Oakland Tuesday. The ship lies against the wharf next to the Webster street bridge, Oakland, and is within a minute's walk of the S. P. depot at Broadway and First street.

CLIP THIS COUPON.
It Is of Value to You.

The Oakland Tribune has made a special arrangement with Captain D. H. Smith of the British convict ship "Success," which is now on its last week of exhibition at Webster-street wharf, Oakland, whereby all readers of this paper may visit this historical vessel at a greatly reduced rate. The regular price of admission is 25 cents, but by clipping out this coupon and presenting it with 15 cents at the ship's ticket booth on the wharf at foot of Webster street you will be admitted to inspect this, the oldest and most wonderful ship in the world, any time May 27th, 28th and 29th.

NOTE—The convict ship leaves Oakland Monday evening next and will never return.

AULD SCOTIA'S CLANS TO GATHER AT PICNIC

Chief James A. MacDonald is the chairman of the committee of arrangements, and has gathered round him a hard-working body of brawny Scots who intend to make the show a big success. On the committee with their chief are Charlie MacDonald, first chieftain; Martin A. McLean, second chieftain; Allen J. MacDonald, third chieftain, and Secretary Samuel MacGreger, fourth chieftain; Tom Monroe, former chief; C. H. Minto, J. H. Thomlinson, J. A. MacDonald, David Finnie, A. Lowrie, and Pete McIntire.

POLICE MUSICIANS OF PORTLAND VISIT FAIR

Leaving high impressions of their skill as musicians and their modish appearance, the Portland police band left for the Exposition last night, after a day here as guests of the Oakland police department.

A sightseeing tour, on which they gave several open-air concerts, one in front of The Tribune office, brought to a close the visit of the police bandsmen to the east side of the bay. Acting Chief J. F. Lynch, who acted as host, together with Captain of Inspectors Agnew and Captain of Police Bock, accompanied the band about the city.

Following three weeks' stay at the Exposition, the band will leave Sunday for Portland.

THE "NEBRASKAN."

In all human likelihood the dynamiting of the Nebraskan was an accident. The waters round about the British Isles are infested with floating "mines," and probably the Nebraskan ran afoul one of them. Many other ships, large and small, have had the same ill luck in recent months.

The haste with which the public, without any basis of definite information, has given to this incident the worst possible interpretation, proves the tenseness of popular feeling in this country. The massacre of the Lusitania has prepared us for anything. Instead of looking at each incident in its best light, the popular disposition is to make the most and the worst of it. In this wise does war, even when it is alien and remote, tend to lower the standards, to debase the atmoshphere of human thought.

When word of the Nebraskan's mishap was flashed over the country yesterday morning the first thought was, not that an accident had happened, but that the ship had been "torpedoed" and—by a German submarine. It was forgotten that there were other and more likely instruments of destruction. It was forgotten that Germany is under special motives for not further outraging American sentiment. In brief, it was forgotten that of all possible things that could happen to an American ship at this time, the least likely is that she should be "torpedoed" by Germans.

It remains to be said that up to now nobody knows anything more with respect to the Nebraskan than that the vessel was struck by an explosive of some sort, which ripped a hole in her bow and sent her limping into port. Her captain does not know what struck her. Nobody will know anything about it until the facts shall have been developed. In the opinion of The Tribune the chances are nine hundred and ninety-nine to one that the ship came into accidental contact with a mine, and that no submarine had anything to do with it.

Assuming that the disablement of the Nebraskan was due to a floating mine, the incident will tend to emphasize the growing resentment against this form of making war. Among the adjustments to follow the present war there ought to be a regulation forbidding the placement of mines beyond the limits of territorial waters. No country has a right in morals, nor should have as a privilege of war, to plant the high seas with menaces to neutral life and property.

WAR AND IMMIGRATION.

If all the Italians in the United States who are of military age return to their native country, the effect upon the unskilled labor market will be sharply apparent. Fortunately or unfortunately, depending upon one's viewpoint, there are no large numbers of great building or constructive enterprises being carried on in this country at the present time. Outside of the subway construction in the City of New York, we know of no enterprises which require very large numbers of unskilled laborers for their completion. If the railroads were prosperous and were able to secure large quantities of money upon easy terms for the purpose of increasing their track and terminal facilities adding to their rolling stock, the demand for Italian laborers would be very great and important construction work might be impeded.

It is estimated that within the next ten or fifteen years many of the railroads of this country, if they keep abreast of traffic demands, will have to double their track facilities; that is, single-track roads will have to have two tracks and double-track roads will have to have three or four tracks. These improvements will be very costly and the making of them will require several hundred thousand laborers, most of whom will come from Italy, Austria and Russia. It may fairly be supposed that much of the surplus labor in Austria and Russia has already been destroyed in the course of the warfare now raging in Europe. If Italy becomes an active participant in the struggle and the war continues for another year, she will probably lose in one way or another upwards of half a million men.

It will be observed that in the past foreign wars have resulted in increased emigration to this country from countries which were concerned in them. It must be remembered, however, that none of the wars which history records have been so destructive to human life as the present one. It is too early to know with accuracy what the losses are; but if we may believe part of the statements made by the respective belligerents they are very great and must amount in the aggregate something like two million men. If this rate of loss continues for another year, it seems wholly possible that instead of the present war being followed by large emigration, it will be succeeded by a diminishing tide of immigrants from the countries which have been sending us the largest number of their citizens. Instead of a million or more foreigners seeking our shores annually, we may expect to see the number reduced to two or three hundred thousand.

The effect of a reduction of sixty-five percent in the total number of immigrants coming annually to our shores may not be so serious as some persons are inclined to think it will be. Possibly the country will not develop quite so rapidly in all directions, but it is by no means certain that we shall be less happy, less comfortable, on that account. This country has been moving at a very fast pace. It may be very much to our advantage to bring a more measured and leisurely tendency to the current of our national life.

Italy, Russia, Austria and Greece may fail as sources of labor supply, but we can always get considerable quantities of excellent labor from Spain, Portugal and if need be from the British Islands in the West Indies. The war, so far as it effects emigration to this country, may be in a sense a blessing in disguise. It may prevent the dense congestion of emigration in the big cities of the East and it may very well result in the bringing of a more desirable class of emigration to this country and in its more diffused distribution. On the whole we believe the Pacific Coast will lose little or nothing by reason of the war, so far as its affects upon the problem of emigration are concerned.

THE "REDEEMED" DESERT.

The return to America of Mr. Elwood Mead as a member of an official commission authorized to "reapportion reclamation projects," is suggestive of a fact which the authorities have been at some pains to keep dark. This fact is that the great reclamation scheme which was to make the desert blossom as the rose, etc., is in a financial sense, a flat failure. The irrigation engineers, operating with government funds, have, indeed, achieved some very notable successes, in a scientific sense. They have brought water to arid lands and have made grass grow where none grew before. But the way of doing it recalls the experience of a certain viticultural expert who came forth from the University some years ago and tackled a declining vineyard in the western foothills of the Santa Clara region. He centered his energies upon a single acre and made a stupendous success of it. The failing vines were revived. The leaves grew green and vigorous. The yield of grapes was fine. And the cost ran to something like seventeen hundred dollars, approximately six times the value of that acre in its best form. So it is with the irrigated deserts. They have succeeded in watering the land all right, all right. But the cost thereof runneth beyond any reckoning allowable under business calculations. Nobody can buy the redeemed lands because their "value," as defined by the cost of redemption, are far beyond their practical worth. Hence the scheme of "reapportionment." It is a case where the government will ultimately have to hold the bag. In other words, prices of the redeemed lands, no matter what it has cost to redeem them, will have to be scaled down to a point where practical farmers will not shy at them.

The incurable and vicious cruelty of the Turk finds fresh illustration in a recent cable from Constantinople which states that the American Ambassador to Turkey has protested to the government to which he is accredited against the sending of fifty British and French subjects to be placed on the fortifications of the Dardanelles in the hope that their presence on an exposed place would prevent the allies from shelling the forts. Nothing more barbarous and savage has occurred for a long time in the history of warfare than this attempt to make a living shield of prisoners of war. There appears to be no depths of cowardice or cruelty to which the Turk will not descend. These poor prisoners were to have been exposed to destruction from the guns of their fellow countrymen had it not been for the energetic action of the American Ambassador, who after much effort succeeded in making the Turkish officials understand the hideousness of the crime which they desired to perpetrate.

Mr. Victor Murdock, now visiting California, declares that the Progressive party will hold a national convention next year and will put Presidential candidates in the field. Its standard bearer, he says, will be either Colonel Roosevelt or our own Hiram. We suspect that Mr. Murdock is reckoning without his host. Governor Johnson has more important things to do at home. And when was Mr. Roosevelt ever known to champion a losing cause? He is a man of enthusiasms, but they are of a kind which must be sustained by a vast deal of popular acclaim, brass-banding and red fire. The Colonel is not a man to die in the last ditch. His game is never with the "has-beens," but with the "isers."

The loss of the British battleship Triumph in the Dardanelles is one more argument in justification of the administrative change now in process at London. The adventure of the Dardanelles, whether or not in itself a blunder, has been pursued blunderingly. And it is costing heavily. It is not the way of British spirit to abandon an undertaking once definitely begun. The movement at the Dardanelles will go on, no matter at what cost, either until it succeeds or is demonstrated to be an impossibility. The sad thing about it is, that whether it be a blunder or not, scores and hundreds of brave men are laying down their lives apparently to no purpose.

Quite independent of sympathies on one side or the other of the war between Italy and Austria, it will be a universal gratification if the fighting zone shall go well beyond the ancient cities of Northern and Northeastern Italy. Destruction of these famous towns, with their priceless monuments, would be a crime unjustifiable upon any theory. Yet it is to be remembered that Belgium had no spell to stay the hand of war. And it is noted that already dynamite bombs have been thrown from an aeroplane into Venice. Verily, in war there is as little reverence as humanity.

The dissolution of that group of interests which has controlled the prices of lumber in Alameda county for the past three years is a welcome happening for a great many people. The desire to build, to possess a home of one's very own is a natural instinct of the human race, and it is brought out in a supreme degree by a climate and a country like ours. But it too often results only in disappointment with the price of lumber set so high that one could scarcely reach it with a Jacob's ladder. Alameda County has no place for a lumber trust. What it wants is homes and more homes.

The authorities of the University of California report that 43 per cent of the women graduates of that school marry. This statement is in refutation of the charge that the higher education of woman tends to sterilize the race. Now we are to believe that there is nothing in the curriculum which bars the course of true love. Young man, go no further West!

"Am I a presidential possibility? Why, that's the funniest question I have ever been asked!" John Puroy Mitchel, Mayor of New York, speaking. Truth, astride a white charger, comes out of the East. Adds the Mayor: "Some people call me a reformer; but I don't like the word." Has the fiddle lost its music?

We are reminded by Superintendent of Schools Barker's reply to Assemblyman George Gelder's attack on education, that orators come and orators go, that legislators are born and legislators retire—but education goes on forever.

Read not in a broiling sun, in lagging laziness of the house dog and in wilted collars. Prove it, rather, in the higher-keyed shout from overflowing playgrounds, in the green hillsides and the fretting schoolboy. Summer has come to Oakland.

The defeat of the single men of Alameda by the married men in a game of baseball can be taken as evidence by the former, especially those who are worn-in-the-ring bachelors that marriage is not always a failure. It rarely is on this side of the bay

GAMBLING ON BASEBALL.

To the Editor: On the Alameda baseball field last Sunday some hundreds of irresponsible, wild-eyed, yelling fans were worked into a frenzy of indignation and attempted to pulverize an umpire who unfortunately rendered decisions which did not coincide with their particular viewpoint. There was clearly demonstrated the irresponsibility and cowardice of the usual mob and a desire for revenge. It was an example of a mob swept off its feet by the mistaken idea that a great injustice had been done.

The late Elbert Hubbard described a mob as "a blind, stupid, insane, crazy, ramping, roaring mass that has lost the rudder of intelligence, justice and comprehension." It hardly seems possible in this civilized community that an intelligent and complacent assemblage could be swept into such a disgraceful scene as that witnessed Sunday last. It is a blight upon the great inspiring game of baseball.

It has been said that the rumpus was instigated by those who had bet on Oakland. From reports, wholesale gambling was going on. The kick was started against the umpire's decisions by these $15-a-week clerks who had their kale extracted from them, and apparently they forgot a lot of things compatible with public decency and justice. Had these roughnecks won, the probabilities are that we would never have heard a squeal or kick. But losing, they saw fit to inject hoodlumism into the day's sport. We emphatically denounce and condemn the injection or toleration of gambling on these games. It is a game of brain and brawn—played for the entertainment of the great American sport-loving public—and should not be allowed to become contaminated by the destructive element of gambling. Those in control should see to it that proper steps are taken at once to suppress it, or otherwise it will go the same path as horse racing and prize fighting has gone, killed by fanatical commercialism and dishonest outside tactics. THE TRIBUNE AND THE WAR.

To the Editor: I send you some literature concerning the war which I have received from Germany, believing that it might help you to get an explanation of Germany's cause first hand. I selected your paper, since I noticed that your attitude under the new management has risen to a true American spirit of fairness and impartiality. I am glad to see that you are, above all, American and that you defend the rights of the United States. Any sensible German will appreciate your point of view. We Germans do not object if the papers of the United States are American. We only object if they are British, and if they act as the defenders of English rights and wrongs. The editorials in your paper are intelligent, and show that a man familiar with foreign affairs is writing the same. It is a pleasure for a man whose special studies has been diplomacy to turn from the silly and sentimental editorials of other newspapers to the sensible and well-written editorials in the Oakland Tribune. There is a remarkable difference between the old and the new Tribune, very much to the advantage of the new one. The whole paper resembles now more a fine European paper or one of the few good newspapers which may be found in the United States, e. g. Springfield Republican, New York Evening Post, Washington Post, etc.

I am not a German-American, but a German who has worked in Germany as well as in the United States to eliminate misunderstandings between these two countries. E. N.

OUR FIRE WASTE.

To the Editor: Owing to the unprecedented cry coming up from most every part of our nation within the last twelve months of the great number of fires occurring, it would seem high time to set about to seek an effective remedy to prevent this terrible waste which has now become "nothing less than criminal."

The annual losses as paid by fire insurance concerns amount to fully $250,000,000, which does not represent by any means the total loss, as there is a great annual loss of uninsured property, besides others, on which the insurance collected does not equal the total loss. It has been carefully estimated by competent authorities that over $400,000,000 is paid to fire insurance companies annually as premiums, which enormous wealth is thus kept from entering other avenues of commerce, for fire insurance tax does not fall alone on property owners, but on every one renting property, purchasing food, clothing, and, in fact, everything we use, no matter what it may be, for dealers and manufacturers must add the extra expense to the price of goods sold or manufactured.

One of the most common practices found prevailing, to which may be attributed many of the residence fires at least, is that of overinsurance, for persons thus protected feel amply safe, hence more or less unconcerned, and as a consequence become careless; to say nothing of the unprincipled who may be tempted through the medium of the "burnout" to cash in on their present belongings in times of extreme financial pressure.

As a remedy for the evil I would recommend that insofar as is practical owners of residence property acquaint themselves with the amount of insurance carried by their tenants, and endeavor to use their good influence by kindly advice and otherwise in keeping such within reasonable limits.

The movement under consideration at present in a number of states of making it a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment with damages to innocent sufferers where owners, through carelessness, allow fires to damage neighboring property is not without merit, we think. There is a cause for every fire: frequent inspection may disclose such beforehand and prevent it. The responsibility for fires rest very greatly with the activity in prevention. In this connection we wish to point to the success of the New England Class Mutuals, who have surprised the world within the last fifty years by reducing the fire loss on factories from practically the highest in the United States to amongst the lowest by the aid of frequent systematic inspection and the automatic sprinkler system, their main aim being to prevent small fires becoming large ones by the above means, as well as by high standard of order, private fire protection always ready, fire barriers, etc.

So long as the present enormous loss continues, just so long will property owners be compelled to expend annually large sums for protection, for it must be remembered that they pay the fire losses and not the fire insurance companies, the latter merely being the adjusters and distributors, for which they also must be paid for their services; hence it behooves each one of us to give this important subject due thought. Portland, Ore., has recently established a system of regular public inspection well worthy of emulation by this city, as well as others.

The enactment of stricter laws for the prevention of fires, the vigorous punishment of criminal incendiaries as well as those who cause fires through carelessness, the prohibition of overinsurance, etc., all tend to reduce the present heavy burden, if carefully looked after in these days when the cry of hard times may be a temptation to some. The public press can also render a valuable aid, through a series of articles published from time to time on this subject, giving the many ways of preventing fires through the proper care and attention, by which all may profit. Members of paid fire departments are well equipped to act as fire inspectors, and could spend a portion of their time daily in such duties with profit to themselves and the public whom they serve. Let us start a campaign on "fire prevention." Very truly,

D. T. AUBREY.

VARIETIES

Syrinx.

Within the forest there's a haunted pool,
Silent and deep. A moss-grown pathway leads
Close to its brink, where, laved by waters cool,
Quivering and rushing, grows a host of reeds.
Down such a path, maybe, fair Syrinx ran,
Panting with fear, a fugitive from Pan!

Beneath the low-hung arches of thick trees,
Sometimes at even, when the world is still,
Swept by the vagrant fingers of the breeze,
The reeds make plaintive music weird and shrill,
As though the nymph, so long immured therein,
Voiced a vain longing for her dryad kin.

TESTIFY FOR DEPUTIES IN ROOSEVELT SHOOTING

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., May 27.—Four witnesses for the defense, testifying today in the trial of ten deputies charged with murder in connection with strike troubles at Roosevelt, N. J., January 19 last, said that the strikers and not the deputies, started the shooting in which two strikers were killed.

When the deputies did fire, these witnesses testified, they fired in the air and the strikers dropped their clubs and ran.

Justice Bergen has announced he will direct the jury to acquit the tenth defendant, John Smith, who was not proved to have been connected with the shooting.

MAXWELL TO MAKE TEST; GET IN ON IT

Here's Your Chance to Gain Pleasure and Knowledge

HERE'S MAXWELL CAR THAT WILL MAKE UNIQUE TEST.

"2500-MILE TRIP ON SCHEDULE IN AUTOMOBILE ROW.

A 2500 mile trip in a Maxwell, sounds very attractive, especially when it is at absolutely no expense to the passengers. Yet that is just what the E. L. Peacock Auto Company intends to do, aided by the Maxwell dealer at Sacramento. Here is the way the trip will be made. Starting every day at two in the afternoon from in front of the Peacock Company's new show rooms at 3020 Broadway, Oakland, the Maxwell car, in the hands of an expert driver, will make the trip to Sacramento and the return trip will be made leaving Sacramento in the morning at 7:30. For ten consecutive days the car will make this run of about 128 miles each way. The Peacock company is confident that the car will not only prove successful in this city, but will also uncover some surprising figures from an economy standpoint.

It has been arranged that drawings for seats will be held at 8 o'clock, on the evening of the day preceding each trip. The same method will be pursued each day. In this manner everyone will have an equal opportunity to make this interesting trip and see Sacramento. The ride is absolutely free. All that is asked of the passengers is that they check up on oil and gasoline before and after the trip in order that an authentic record may be kept. No one in the employ of the Peacock Automobile Company or their relatives will be permitted to make the journey as passengers.

DAWSON MADE MANAGER.

Arthur Dawson, for the past two years San Francisco branch of the Don Lee organization, has been transferred to Sacramento and will be in charge of the Cadillac and Paige interests in the Capital city from this time on. Dawson is well known in Oakland, and first started here in the automobile business.

Phil Prather, Northern California Lee manager will take personal supervision of the San Francisco branch.

DODGE EXPOSITION EXHIBIT.

Charles H. Burnan, local manager of the H. O. Harrison Company is waxing enthusiastic because of a decision of the Dodge Bros. Motor Car Co. to take space at the Exposition. An excellent display of Dodge mode is being prepared. When completed they will be installed in a prominent place in the Transportation building.

INTERESTING ROAD NEWS.

The Touring Department of THE TRIBUNE received word last night that should interest motorists who are planning Memorial Day tours. R. S. Robinson of Berkeley recently made a ten day trip along a route which included San Rafael, Bolinas, Camp Meeker, Monte Rio, Guerneville, Santa Rosa, Petaluma, and back to San Rafael, Richmond and Berkeley.

He advises that the road through Bolinas and up to Camp Meeker is rough in many places. From Camp Meeker back to Monte Rio he declares is almost impassable. So bad is it that he would not attempt to go over the route again. From Monte Rio via Guerneville Grade to Santa Rosa the road is better than it has been in five years. Between Santa Rosa and Petaluma road construction was in progress for a limited distance making a detour necessary.

Robinson made the trip in a Studebaker.

AUTO MEN FORESEE SUCCESS.

The automobile accessory dealers who are in charge of the coming theater party at the Orpheum, state that every ticket for the evening will be sold long before the night of June 9. Some of the garage and tire men who originally took but ten tickets, soon sold this number and at once secured larger quantities of them.

Automobile owners are beginning to take an interest in the affair. The contestants in the tire changing contest are getting in an hour or more practice each day in order to be right on edge for their little demonstration.

The Rubber Club of San Francisco have voted to take in the performance in a body. This club is composed of the representatives of the various tire factories.

ENJOYED TRIP WITH KISSELL "36."

H. M. Pickering of Boston is willing to swear that there is no "Four" on the market like his Kissel Kar "36." Mr. Pickering bases his judgment practically on a recent tour of approximately 550 miles which he declares was accomplished without once shifting gears. He says:

"We finished with a perfect score, nothing at all being done except to feed gas, oil and water to the car.

"We went by the way of New York city on high and took big hills without half trying. We reached New York in twelve hours, stopping in New Haven for lunch and making other short stops at various towns, with a forty-minute stop at the Bronx for a call.

"The car, without anything being done to her, was out for a fifty-mile spin the next day and was running as sweetly as ever. Our gasoline record on the trip was 18½ miles to the gallon."

MUSICIAN QUITS WORK; WIFE GETS DIVORCE

After Mrs. Hattie V. Hunt, 470 Thirty-seventh street, became a drugless physician and began to earn an income, her musician husband, Ernest M. Hunt, practically gave up his profession and spent his time lying on a couch in her office reading novels and smoking his pipe, according to testimony on which Superior Judge Brown today awarded Mrs. Hunt an interlocutory decree of divorce.

Mrs. Ida Whitfield, professional associate of Mrs. Hunt who testified for her said that the action of the defendant was a detriment to their practice. During the last year the testimony showed, Hunt had given his wife but $35 for the support of their two minor children both of whom were given to their mother.

And Still Another Convert!

When an old-time motorist, a man who has been driving $5000 cars for years, makes up his mind he's going to cut down that big, unnecessary investment he's been carrying and buy a less costly car, you may be dead sure that the car he picks is right!

It's got to be right! He knows what kind of stuff automobile builders are putting in their cars and he's been mighty particular to watch what those cars are doing.

A man in the $5000 class came in and picked out a 6-cylinder Kissel Kar a few days ago. But he told us he'd been keeping tab on it for more than a year.

The Kissel Kar sold itself—after a systematic sizing up and comparison with the three highest priced cars made in America.

You can afford to emulate this connoisseur's example. Look into the record of the Kissel Kar as searchingly as you know how. Get a list of Kissel Kar owners' names from us and talk to them in their own homes.

And this is what you'll find:

That Kissel Kars have almost unbelievable power—strength—dependability; that they are the easiest cars on repair bills you ever heard of; and that the remarkable service to Kissel Kar owners and the unusually large amount of conscience put into Kissel Kars by their builders make them the most consistent and conservative automobile buy in America.

If a $5000 man found the Kissel Kar to represent the best investment in motor value that he could find it is even a better investment for you.

Models: Kissel Kar 4-36, $1555; 6-42 Kissel Kar, $1808: two or four door, five-passenger; $1900 for the seven-passenger, four-door, and $2000 for the seven-passenger three-door model.
6-48, price $2500 five-passenger, two or four door, or seven-passenger, four-door; 6-60 Kissel Kar, price $3300, seven-passenger, four-door, f. o. b. San Francisco.

BERKELEY GOSSIP of STUDENTS AND RESIDENTS IN UNIVERSITY TOWN AND SOCIAL & PERSONAL HAPPENINGS of DAY in the ISLAND CITY ALAMEDA

SENATOR PHELAN GUEST OF BERKELEY WOMEN

Delivers Address Before Democratic Organization Many Transbay Citizens Attend

BERKELEY, May 27. — The widened opportunity for the young man in statecraft was the theme of an address delivered last evening by Senator James D. Phelan at a banquet given in his honor by the Woman's Democratic club of Berkeley. More than 300 attended the feast, which was spread at the Hotel Shattuck.

Senator Phelan declared that politics generally had been emancipated from boss rule and that what remained was a clean profession which no young man might hesitate to enter. In part he credited the women voters with this achievement. To President Wilson he assigned the credit for having set an example which had kept the mud from re-entering the purified waters.

Mrs. Ophelia T. Hoyt, president of the club, was an efficient toastmistress, senator Phelan in the course of his address said:

"There is one thing in the political situation that strikes me," said Senator Phelan, "that there are more people interested now in a non-election period than ever before. Largely this is due to the participance now of women. They are curious and absorbed not only where there is an election but at other times as well. It is the policy that we others may well learn of them.

"We have within a short time changed the political character of the country. The great mass of democracy has come at last to express itself. The radicals of the west have achieved this revolution, giving the maximum possible political liberty and generality.

"Emancipated California can now offer a political career to young men. The profession of government has been so cleansed and improved as to have an actual call upon the young man.

GOVERNMENT PROJECTS.

"In the Alaska railroads and the Panama canal, Uncle Sam has branched out into the new business of transportation. He was interested before in carrying mails, in education and in similar lines, but this is a new activity which he shows. It is but another opportunity in public life for the young men.

"The president now in office has done more than any other single man to lift the standard of government in this country. He, among few, has understood the genius of America. He has stood by promises and pledges, understanding well that honesty is a necessity for adequate government. Certainly better are the mistakes of a democracy than the blunders of an aristocracy. The president has been careful to conserve the liberal nature of democracy.

"There can be no such thing as a reactionary movement now. Let the progressives and the democrats hold fast to these things that have been gained. Going forward side by side they may be conjoined. It seems likely that the progressive party is tending toward fusion. I feel it must certainly tend rather toward democracy than toward the old dominant party that stands so opposite to it."

GUESTS FROM BAY CITIES.

The hotel dining room where the banquet was held was gaily decorated. American flags, with flowers in the university colors of blue and gold composed the decorative scheme. There were a number of guests from Oakland and San Francisco and other bay points as well as from Berkeley. The "Star Spangled Banner" was sung in chorus by the guests before they were seated.

Mayor Charles D. Heywood mentioned that the four mayors of Berkeley since new charter was adopted have been, respectively, democrat, socialist, republican and progressive. Mrs. Mary E. Fraser spoke for the Women's Democratic club. Mayor-elect Samuel C. Irving complimented the women for their interest in civic affairs. Mrs. Edgar L. Ormsby, retiring president of the Women's Democratic club of Alameda county, spoke of patriotism in times of peace.

H. W. Brunk told of democratic progress throughout the nation and Congressman J. Arthur Elston enlarged on the theme that, following election, officials ceased to be democrats or republicans and became alike just Americans and servants of all the people. Mrs. Frederick G. Harrison, president of the Joaquin Miller club; R. A. Berry, former city commissioner; Miss Mary Fairbrother, president of the Woman's Democratic league of California, and Frederick T. Robson, city commissioner-elect, were succeeding speakers.

PRESIDENT WHEELER SPOKE.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, president of the National Council of Women, warned the newly elected officials that their task at Washington would not be a simple one. She took occasion also to highly compliment the diplomatic service of this country abroad.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California paid high compliment to Senator Phelan, mentioning him as peculiarly a product of California. He declared his belief that democracy served a valid purpose in the affairs of the country and that it was a power mainly for good. He declared that, sixteen years ago when he came to Berkeley, he had remarked how extremely "democratless" a town this was, but that this condition had changed. He believed that Senator Phelan owed his election to the appreciation of his worth entertained by men of all parties. J. P. Montgomery of Oakland preceded the speaker of the evening.

The following reception committee was in charge:

Mrs. Mary E. Fraser, Mrs. L. R. Dudley, Mrs. R. P. Rickard, Mrs. C. C. Emslie, Mrs. M. A. Zelt, Mrs. Thos. Fallon, Mrs. H. W. Brunk, Mrs. E. A. Egbert, Mrs. Hurt, Mrs. Charles Fraser, Mrs. E. M. Horsey, Mrs. J. W. Thurber, Mrs. A. Stearns, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. L. F. Welch, Miss Minnie Burns.

NEWSPAPERS FOR SCHOOL TEXT BOOKS

Professor of Journalism Urges Their Use as Means of Education.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, May 27. — Newspapers ought to be used as a high school text-book and as a laboratory. That is the doctrine which Merle Thorpe, professor of journalism in the University of Kansas, will set before his students in a new course on "High School Journalism," in the summer session of the University of California, at Berkeley, from June 21 to July 31.

He declares that current newspapers and magazines ought to be used in the classroom to vitalize the study of civics, history and English composition. Moreover, he believes the publication of papers by the high schools and colleges exceedingly useful training. He recommends development of helpful relations between the high school and the local paper, already existing in many California towns, by which the community may be kept in touch, through contributions from the school, with its work and with new developments in education and science. In this summer session course, Profes-or Thorpe will advise high school teachers also as to how to write useful contributions to educational and technical journals.

Two other courses are to be given this summer by Professor Thorpe for those who want to make newspaper work their business in life—one on the materials, methods and organization of the newspaper, and another on editorial theory and practice. J. Melvin Lee, lecturer on journalism in New York University, will give a course on advertising, and to help Professor Thorpe supervise the "Summer Session Californian," to be issued by the students. In addition to practical experience on this paper, the best of the students are to have opportunity to help with the publicity work for the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

This is the second summer Professor Thorpe has taught journalism at Berkeley. He is known as one of the most successful teachers of the subject in America, for to varied experience as city editor, editor and Washington correspondent he has added a number of years of teaching and lecturing. He has just published a 400-page book, "The Coming Newspaper," in which he discusses the methods and ethics of newspaper-making, news-gathering and handling, advertising, circulation, administration and editorial direction.

"SONG AND DANCE! HEAVENS, NO?" IMPRESARIO MAKES ERROR

PRIMA DONNA IS NO TOE ARTIST

GENE ORMONDE, WHO WILL APPEAR AT BERKELEY ELKS' VAUDEVILLE.

BERKELEY, May 27.—It doesn't do for even an amateur impressario to grow indolent in his perusal of current theatrical literature. So Roy Henderson recently discovered, almost to the loss to the Berkeley Elks' vaudeville eext Friday night of Gene Ormonde, prima donna singer of note.

Henderson, who is active in arrangements for the show, remembered the lady in question when she was on the musical comedy stage. She gracefully accepted his invitation to participate in the vaudeville at the high school, and then Henderson wanted to know what her act would be.

"Shall I bill it as a song and dance?" he asked.

"Song and dance! Good heavens, no!" came back the answer, "I shall present operatic numbers, if that is satisfactory!"

Henderson gasped that it was and learned later that the former musical comedy star was now scintillating on the grand opera stage and that he had made a misstep for which he was quite willing to apologize.

An added attraction is a piano and singing team, "Chuck" Riesner and Jack McClelland, California song writers, featuring their latest hit, "The Garden of Earth." Riesner recently completed a tour of the Orpheum circuit and has been booked for a return engagement.

In place of the Chinese skit formerly announced, W. B. Lloyd will repeat his ludicrous Chinese impersonations. Lloyd traveled with Lew Dockstader's minstrels for many years.

The appearance of Gene Ormonde is looked forward to by her many friends. Miss Ormonde leaves shortly for a concert tour and this will probably be her only appearance in the West for some time.

The other numbers on the program are the Pacific Quuartet, in costume songs; Max Horwinski, the German Orithologist; Ramo, the Great, in magic art; E. Paul Allen, violinist; Howard Pratt, in tenor solos, and the eight Yama Yama girls in clever songs and dances.

Knights of Columbus Show Draws Throng

ALAMEDA, May 27. — There is a rhythmic song about "A Night With John," which had its premiere last evening at the New Alameda theater, that keeps the audience humming and whistling when it leaves the playhouse. There was a large throng on the first night of the performance, which has arranged by Alameda council, Knights of Columbus. There are a score of song hits and local quips that keep the audience in future good humor, although long intermissions and a late start dampened the ardor a bit.

The show will be repeated this evening.

Knowland and Family Return From Hawaii

ALAMEDA, May 27. — Former Congressman and Mrs. J. R. Knowland, with Miss Spencer Knowland and Russell and William Knowland, returned yesterday from the Hawaiian islands, arriving San Francisco on the Sonoma.

There are still a few seats left, although the demand for the second night has been greater than the first.

BERKELEY BURGLAR ADMITS 6 CRIMES

BERKELEY, May 27. — In the arrest in San Francisco this morning of William Louis Lisner and his subsequent confession, the mystery of several north Berkeley and Northbrae burglaries has been cleared. Lisner, who is said to have traveled under several aliases, has admitted at least six burglaries, the total loot from which amounted to more than $1000 worth of jewelry and other valuables.

Lisner was arrested on description by Detective Sergeants A. S. J. Woods and Henry Jamison. They found that among his aliases had been George Oberlarser, L. Bergman and Joseph Seligger. U. C. STUDENTS WORK IN VACATION

BERKELEY, May 27. — If anyone repeats the ancient slander that the college student is afraid to work, just tell him he doesn't know what he is talking about, says a U. C. authority. Here is a bit of evidence as to how the students of the university use the "vacation," not loafing, but to earn money for the next year's college expenses:

"One fraternity, chosen at random from among the oldest and most properous at Berkeley, was asked how its members are spending their vacation. This was the answer:

Two are herding sheep on the mountainside 6000 feet above sea-level; two are working in a field party of the United States Geological Survey; two are employed in clerical work; one is in the country collecting farm-production statistics for a state bureau; one is working in a bank; one is soliciting life insurance—he spent several summers at this with great success—two have been given jobs at editorial work; one is working in an advertising business; one is a chauffeur; one is playing for dancing at a summer resort; one is in Nevada as a scientific collector, gathering fosils; one is studying stenography; one is enrolled for the United States Army summer camp for military training for college students; one is helping run a combine harvester, four are at work in fruit orchards or on cattle ranches; of five others who were graduated this month or left college to go to work four have jobs in the field for which they have prepared as their life-career—one in marine engineering construction, one in fruit-growing and two in the importing business, while the fifth is going East for graduate study.

That is to say, of the 32 young men who were members of this particular fraternity during the university year just ended, only seven are using the vacation as vacation—and most of those seven are only freshmen.

What is true of this particular fraternity is not exceptional, but typical of all the rest of the 47 fraternities and house clubs at the University of California.

The members of fraternities at Berkeley are shown by the official records to be better in scholarship than the students who do not belong to fraternities. And here is evidence that they are no more afraid of hard work getting a living than anybody else, and like the vast majority of all the students at Berkeley, in the habit of spending their vacations earning money to help put themselves through college.

The Berkeley student knows that having no money to go to college with is no excuse for missing the precious opportunity of getting a college edcation.

A picturesque wedding took place last evening in St. Mark's Church, Berkeley, where Miss Blanche Latta and Mr. Vinton Miller, both graduates o fthe University of California in the class of 1915, were married in the presence of several hundred guests. The bride was a charming figure from medieval times in her robe of white satin made in the style of the Stuart period, with long court train falling from a high Elizabethan collar of pearl studded lace. Her attendants were in the picture in their quaint, high-waisted gowns of green crepe de chine with braid sashes tied in butterfly bows, and broad-brimmed picture hats of green tulle. Beneath the hat brims at the back were wide bows of tulle from which fell long streamers and the bridesmaids carried formal bouquets of pink roses. They were Miss Aileen Clark, Miss Melinda Magly and Miss Claire Biaggi of the bride's class in college, and members with her of the Kel Thaida Club. The bride's costume was elaborated with chantilly lace on an overdrape of tulle, and was adorned with ropes of pearls in the old-time manner. A long tulle veil fell over the face in the fashion of the period, and the bridal bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and bride roses. A flower girl, Miss Gertrude Deltorkio of Fort Bragg, was gowned in accordion pleated pink chiffon, and strewed rose petals in the path of the bride. Mr. O. F. Cook of Lodi, who belongs to the same college fraternity as the groom, the Pi Kappa Thi, was best man. Rev. Parsons was the officiating clergyman.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. F. L. Kerchner of Berkeley and a niece of Congressman James Latta of Nebraska. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Miller of Lakeview, Ore., who have taken a house in Spruce street, Berkeley, for the season. After a honeymoon the young couple will establish their home in Lakeview.

AT THE EXPOSITION.

Mrs. W. G. Henshaw and Mrs. Lucy Hayes were among those who enjoyed tea at the New York building at the Fair yesterday. Mrs. Henshaw was stunning in a black taffeta gown embroidered on the bodice with a tracery of dull silver. Her small black hat was trimmed with silver gray aigrettes.

Miss Emmeline Childs, who recently visited Mrs. Willard Williamson, was with a group of friends who were guests of Miss Norma and Miss Harriet Mack, and Miss Anita McLean of New York. Miss Childs wore black, as do most smartly gowned women these days, with white fox furs in the latest summer fashion, in spite of the warm weather.

INTERESTING ENGAGEMENT.

An interesting engagement just announced is that of Miss Dorothy Fife, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fife of Burlingame, to Mr. Edward Hewlett Benjamin Jr. of Oakland. Benjamin and a brother of Miss Edith Benjamin, and is one of the well-known bachelors of Oakland society. BLACK SUITS ARE PUZZLING

Mourning or Modish? That's Grave Question

Whether women are in mourning or merely in the fashion is a question of the season. It is confusing and one can not tell whether to assume a discreetly sympathetic manner with black-robed friends, or give the light greeting of every day. This may seem a heartless indifference to bereavement, but the other may be awfully out of place. It is safer to risk the heartless indifference, since most of the women of society are wearing black.

☼ ☼ ☼

Mrs. Victor Reiter was a charming figure at the Oakland the other day, gowned in black with a black ribbon banded veil over her black hat, and those who knew her cousins are fighting for France, wondered if she was in mourning. Happily she was not. Neither is Miss Carmen Ghirardelli who wears black unrelieved, nor Miss Melo Ambercrombie who ventures a flash of white wings on her hat.

☼ ☼ ☼

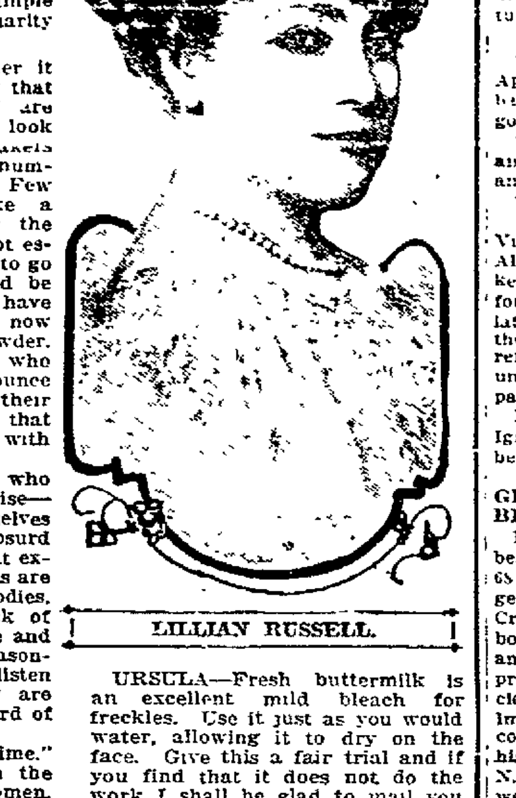

Mrs. Whitelaw Reid of course, wears widow's weeds. But Miss Lois Cunningham who came with her from New York is merely modish. Her gowns are nearly all black and women of the Burlingame set are somberly arrayed for their gayest days. Mrs. Walter Hobart rarely wears colors, and handsome Mrs. Jackling who is a bride, came home from New York in black.

As a sadly uncertain young matron remarked, "You cannot tell," and she confidently expects to dash into the embarrassment of misplaced sympathy before the season is over.

LAUGHING STOCK

(By LILLIAN RUSSELL)

(Copyright: 1915: By Lillian Russell.)

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

A WOMAN with a shiny nose should not boast about not using powder. Her nose betrays her lack of good sense and judgment. Nor should the fat and flabby woman offer cynical observations on her sisters who are wise enough to exercise and keep in trim. Her rotundity is ample evidence of her lack of familiarity with exercise in any form.

A few women may consider it quite smart to be able to say that they and the powder puff are strangers. But when others look at the shiny faces of the speakers they are glad enough to be numbered with the great majority. Few women reach anything like a mature age without feeling the need of face powder. It is not especially creditable to anybody to go about with a face that could be used for a mirror merely to have the satisfaction of declaring now and then that they never powder. Goodness knows, the women who avoid powder need not announce the fact. The condition of their faces is sufficient evidence that they never come into contact with it.

And the big, round women who never take any physical exercise—why, they actually make themselves a laughing stock. It is so absurd for such women to declare that exercise is nonsense. Their spirits are probably as flabby as their bodies, which accounts for their lack of sufficient ambition to exercise and keep their figures within reasonable size. No wonder people listen to such women talk! They are amazed by their utter disregard of common sense.

"O, I eat anything, at any time," is an expression heard from the lips of another group of women. Possibly they desire to leave the impression that they are hardy and not merely hothouse plants. Their pimple, sallow complexions and blemished skins, to say nothing of their complaints of headaches, tell another story.

Women who disregard even the simple health rules are to be pitied. Their avoidance of such rules is always written plainly upon them. There is nothing smart or brainy in ignoring health rules and opportunities to make a presentable appearance. Women who do such things are objects of pity and ridicule, for the results of their practices are clearly evident in their personal appearance.

The woman who is admired is the one who has sufficient pride and common sense to make herself just as presentable as possible. She does not refrain from the use of powder and go about with a shining nose. Nor does she avoid exercise and carry a heavy load of excess fat. And when it comes to eating, she is at least careful to select dishes which are not injurious.

When I hear a shiny nosed woman declare that she never uses powder I feel like telling her that it is high time for her to begin to do so.

If you want to boast—and it is not a desire which should be gratified—be sure you have a subject that is praisworthy.

Answers to Queries

MRS. L. E. W.—Don't worry any more, little mother. Your child is not the only one who has been afflicted in this way the first year at school. Try the simple remedy of immersing the head in hot vinegar, just as hot as can be borne, for about five or ten minutes; then shampoo the hair thoroughly with a good shampoo. One treatment usually eliminates the trouble. Tincture of larkspur is also good. It can be purchased at any drug store, with directions for using.

URSULA—Fresh buttermilk is an excellent mild bleach for freckles. Use it just as you would water, allowing it to dry on the face. Give this a fair trial and if you find that it does not do the work I shall be glad to mail you my formula for freckles if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

CONSTANT READER — Under no circumstances continue using such coarse soap on your face. No wonder your face is in such bad condition. Only the purest and best soap should be used on the face. I should use the pure imported castile soap if I were you. Peroxide and ammonia are used for removing superfluous hair. Take enough pure peroxide of hydrogen to wet the hair, add a few drops of ammonia. This will bleach the hair so that it is less conspicuous and the ammonia will gradually kill the roots.

M. R. S.—Pimply shoulders are usually the result of a faulty diet. Eat less pastry and sweets and drink more water. The daily bath in which salt has been liberally sprinkled and an hour's exercise in the open air also will help greatly in purifying the blood. In addition to this treatment apply a dab of the following lotion to the pimples several times a day: One dram precipitate of sulphur, one dram tincture of camphor and four ounces rosewater. Rub briskly with a Turkish towel after bathing.

R. W. P.—The best spring medicine you can take, my dear, is an overdose of fresh air and exercise. Be careful of your diet; do not eat rich and spicy foods, avoid pastries and sweets, and drink lots of water between meals. Give up drinking tea and coffee and substitute for them cocoa, chocolate and milk. Walk at least three miles a day. Sleep with plenty of fresh air in your room and guard against constipation, and I am sure it will not be long before you will see a marked improvement in your complexion.

MAE: The epsom salts solution for reducing flesh is perfectly harmless. It will reduce on an average of two pounds a week. I shall be glad to send you the formula and the instructions for using, if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

WOMEN in the NEWS

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—Suffer[illegible] from the [illegible] of escape from Mexico after she had saved the records of the city of Tepic, Mrs. Dorothy E. Fullen, wealthy [illegible] owner, with her [illegible] son, William, is at the Hotel Lafayette.

Mrs. Fullen's story of dangers at the hands of bandits, of her refusal to hand over the keys of the Tepic Hall of Records until the safety of the records was assured, of hours spent under the seat of a railroad coach to escape bullets, are thrilling.

It was Mrs. Fullen who nursed General [illegible] back to health from the [illegible] of [illegible] which he suffered after his triumphal entry into Mexico City. Taken for a spy, she once narrowly escaped [illegible] when General Juan [illegible] was executed last New Year's eve it was [illegible] of mail for Mrs. Fullen that was found in his breast pocket.

[illegible] PLANTATION.

The American woman owns the "Cannoa del Tabaco," a 10,000-acre banana plantation sixty miles south of Te[illegible]. Determined to clear up legal matters and see that the ranch work was capably administered, Mrs. Fullen went to Mexico in the fall of last year.

"And eight presidents have entered Mexico City during my stay there," she said yesterday.

With her 6-year-old son, Mrs. Fullen got as far as Guadalajara by train. From there came a long [illegible] trip by mule or any other conveyance.

"William and I were compelled to sleep for one night in a cave in which were nine dead men and many dead horses," said Mrs. Fullen yesterday. "I saw my little boy's lip tremble at the sight. But when I said, 'Come, cheer up, William, let's just call this moving pictures,' he went to sleep."

ENCOUNTERS BANDIT.

"Before reaching Tepic—this was in April—we were cornered by a party of bandits. The leader seeing my pair of gold spurs told me to take them off.

"[illegible] are a gentleman and want the spurs you will stoop down and take them off yourself.'

"He let me go then.

"When the Carranzistas drove the Villistas from Tepic April 13, Judge Alfredo Narvarez asked me if I would keep the keys of the Hall of Records for him. I took them and a day or so later called on General Juan Carrazco, the new commandant, with the keys. I refused to give him the keys, however, until he promised me not to destroy the papers."

Mrs. Fullen is awaiting news from Ignacio Bonillas, the Minister of War, before deciding as to her future plans.

GROOM 68, TAKES BRIDE AGED 61.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—Doing their best to escape publicity, Adam C. Dodds, 68 years old, probation officer of Los Angeles county, and Mrs. Isabel Tilden Crossette, 61, years old, of Pasadena, boarded a trolley car, rode to Santa Ana and were married by Rev. J. H. Scott, probation officer of Orange county, and close personal friend of the bridegroom. Immediately following, the newly-wedded couple returned to Pasadena. Placing his bride in charge of his residence at N. 160 South Mentor street, Mr. Dodds went back to his office in the Hall of Records and resumed his duties, as if nothing had happened.

When confronted with the report of his impromptu wedding, Mr. Dodds confessed.

"I don't see anything wonderful in just getting married," he said. "I have known Mrs. Crosette—pardon me, Mrs. Dodds—for ten months now. We met in Pasadena.

"When we discovered we were fitted for each other we simply decided to get married and travel the rest of our journey together. So we got on a street car and went out to Santa Ana.

"My son, C. T. Dodds, who, with his wife, has been living at my Pasadena home temporarily, knew all about it, and heartily approved of the marriage. The only reason we went to Santa Ana was to escape the newspapers. There must [illegible]

"[illegible] was [illegible] after [illegible] then came right [illegible] of [illegible] couldn't pass it up [illegible] because I got married, you know."

Mr. Dodds has been probation officer [illegible] this county since 1899, and is widely known in Southern California. His friends [illegible] are planning a celebration [illegible]

HEIRESS BRIDE TO LIVE WITH HUBBY.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Fernheimer Murray, the [illegible] daughter of Millionaire Charles [illegible], who eloped with James Murray, doorman of the [illegible] apartments at No. 55 Central Park West, is back with her husband again. She returned tearfully after having run away.

[illegible] middle of March, the young people have been living in a tiny flat on the fifth floor of No. 239 East Fifty-seventh street. Murray was employed as an elevator man in the Times Annex.

When he went home after his day's work he found the flat empty, save for a trunk containing his clothes and a $10 bill, his salary for the week, which he had given his bride that morning. The furniture had been taken away by the proprietor of the installment house from whom it had been purchased.

SEARCHED IN VAIN.

Murray, whose efforts to locate his bride since then have been unavailing, received a telephone message while at work, telling him that his wife was at the home of Mrs. William Dolan, No. 343 East Fifty-seventh street. He hurried there and the young heiress fell into his arms, declaring, through her tears, that she would never, never let him out of her sight again.

Murray gave out a statement regarding the disappearance of his wife, in which he said:

"Ever since our marriage my wife's father has been seeing her every day and urging her to leave me. He talked to her until she was almost a nervous wreck. She told him plainly that she loved me and intended to remain with me.

Her father told her that he was giving her her last chance. If she did not leave me the family would cast her aside forever. Finally she agreed to go, sent for the furniture man and turned over the goods to him.

BLAME WIFE'S FATHER.

"Mrs. Murray was taken by her father to the home of A. A. Mathewsbush, a friend of the family. She cried consistently and begged to be allowed to return to me.

"Today she left Flatbush and came here to the home of Mrs. Dolan, who telephoned me, and I hurried to her. We intend to take what money we have and go to Chicago, where we will be away from the influence of my wife's family."

Mrs. Murray will be twenty-one in less than a year, and, at that time, will inherit $50,000 from the estate of her grandmother, which money is independent of her father's fortune."

BURGLARS GUARD INJURED WOMAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—While Mrs. Herman Stettin, an aged woman residing at 839 Cole street, lay in her bed with a broken arm, two armed and masked thugs broke into her house last night and after threatening her with death if she dared to make an outcry, ransacked the place while she helplessly looked on and watched her most treasured possessions taken.

While one robber sat on the edge of Mrs. Stettin's bed and kept her covered with a revolver, his companion gathered up Mrs. Stettin's valuable.

SANKEY'S SONS CRUEL, WIFE SAYS.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 27.—Among the divorces placed on the calendar in the Superior Court here yesterday was that [illegible] Charles W. Sankey, who asks absolute divorce from Ira Allan Sankey, the noted American hymn writer, who, in collaboration with Dwight Moody, wrote the words and music to church themes that gave them world-wide reputation. In her complaint, Mrs. Sankey alleges habitual intemperance, intolerable cruelty and desertion from February, 1[illegible], 1911.

GIRL FORESWEARS LOBSTER PALACES.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Alone and deserted by her fair weather cafe "friends" [illegible]-year-old Eugenia Kelly, heiress to a million, promised today in Yorkville court that she would forswear the soft seductiveness of the tango and deafen her ears to the crystalline charms of champagne. In return for this she was pledged a trip to the Exposition at San Francisco via the Panama canal.

The protean-mooded girl made the promise with a pout, however, and only after the story of her nights of revel and wine was about to be spread before the world.

But whatever the future may hold, be it recorded that it was a changed Eugenia Kelly who stood at the bar and promised the gentle voiced Magistrate House that she would obey her mother.

Mrs. Kelly then formally withdrew the charge of incorrigibility and she and her daughter walked from the courtroom arm in arm.

Eugenia came into court yesterday a demure dark-eyed miss, subdued, where the day before she had been defiant; elegantly and quietly garbed, where before she had been garish and bizarre. On Monday her eyes had darted daggers and her coal black brows penciled bitterness when she looked at her mother.

Today she submitted to her mother's caress, and after she returned to her apartment at No. 116 East Sixty-third street, her pent-up feeling gave way and she threw herself upon her bed in a paroxysm of weeping.

HAS TRUSTEE FOR HUSBAND NAMED.

REDWOOD CITY, May 27.—Mrs. Mayzellia Ann McCarthy, peninsula clubwoman, who aspires to be Hillsborough's first "postmaster," yesterday scored an important legal point in her divorce suit against Dr. Charles F. McCarthy when she succeeded in having Superior Judge George Buck appoint Francis T. Rapp as trustee of her husband's holdings, the doctor now being in India.

She was also allowed temporary alimony of $25 a month and $150 for counsel fees. Samuel Shortridge and James T. O'Keefe are the attorneys for Mrs. McCarthy.

Dr. McCarthy suddenly left his Hillsborough home for India after inserting notice in the San Mateo papers that he would no longer be responsible for his wife's debts.

This was the first intimation that all was not well in the McCarthy household. Mrs. McCarthy's divorce suit followed.

Dr. McCarthy owns property in San Mateo, which will probably be sold to meet the plaintiff's alimony.

Robbers Return for Duel, Victim Says

Antone Canton, 1815, One-Hundredth Avenue, engaged two bandits in a revolver duel about midnight near his home, according to a report made by him to the police last night. Canton told the police that he had been held up and robbed at the same place by two men the night before. They were armed, and while one threatened him with a revolver the other took $3 from his pocket.

Canton was on his way home last night when he was again accosted. He started to run and one of the men fired several shots at him. Canton dodged around a corner and then ran into his house, where he got his revolver and returned to the attack. He fired two shots at the men and they started to run. He followed, firing at them, until his revolver was empty.

The police say that Canton is of an excitable disposition.

JITNEY BUS ROBBERS HOLD UP CHAUFFEUR

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Jitney bus robbers turned another clever trick this morning when they held up John A. Beasley in front of the Ocean Shore station at Twelfth and Mission streets. Beasley was hailed by the pair at Powell and Market street, at 1:45 a. m. They directed him to take them to the Ocean Shore depot. On arriving there Beasley told them the fare would be 50 cents. They asked him if he could change $5 and as he took a handful of silver one of them held a revolver to his neck. They relieved him of about $6 and made their escape through a lumber yard.

Patrick Duffey, who lives at the Acme Hotel, was held up by two men on Third street, early this morning and relieved of $30.

HUBBY, AGED 40, FAILED TO PLEASE WIFE OF 19

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27. — Eugene A. Rogers, 40 years old, a coffee merchant, merchant, residing in Alameda, and Lena M. Rogers, aged 19, were wedded last year and almost immediately the wife began accepting the attentions of other men, according to her husband's allegations made to Superior Judge Van Nostrand today.

Rogers says that almost nightly there would be a rendezvous at Thousand Oaks, Berkeley, wither Mrs. Rogers would wend her way and meet the young swains who had any influence over her.

"Any young man at all would do," Rogers said. He was given a decree.

Separate maintenance was asked in an action filed today by Mrs. Helen Kilborn against Cleon Kilborn, son of the late Paris Kilborn, former harbor commissioner. She asks that he be restrained from drawing funds on deposit in a Berkeley bank. The couple are well known in Alameda county society.

MAN INJURED: POLICE ACT.

Patrolman U. K. Petersen and Railroad Policeman Sweeney found Charles V. Williams, 925 K street, Sacramento, in a dazed condition at the Southern Pacific Sixteenth street depot. They at first thought he was drunk, but he complained of a severe pain in his head and showed that he had been bruised. He was taken to the receiving hospital, where he will be questioned by the police as to how he incurred the injury.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Commissioner Harry A. Anderson will deliver an illustrated lecture in the alumni gymnasium of St. Mary's College at 7:45 this evening on "Material Construction of the City Hall." Stereopticon views showing various stages in the construction of the hall will be thrown on the screen. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Science Society of the College and will be open to the public.

SALESMANSHIP STUDENTS WIN HIGH HONORS

FORTY BOYS AND GIRLS ARE GRADUATES

TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL SCORES GREAT SUCCESS

CHAMPION SALESMAN AND SALESWOMAN OF THE OAKLAND TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL. (RIGHT) MISS EVELYN MESTER, AND (LEFT) LOUIS LESSER, AND THEIR TEACHER, N. O. SHIVELEY.

Who has tried to sell a school teacher a book, a sack of flour, or an automibile?

They get good marks in the Oakland Technical High School for it—and many consignments of goods have been sold, despite the fact that the selling was done to a teacher hired specially to rebuff youthful salesmen, turn deaf ears to the pleading of the 'sales' agent and give the marble heart to the wiles of fair saleslades.

Because, despite these obstacles, they have succeeded in making sales, forty boys and girls are to be graduated this year from the school of salesmanship at the Oakland Technical High School. The course, started last January, has proved one of the most successful in the institution.

N. O. Shiveley is the teacher of the novel course, which is to be enlarged next term.

OAKLANDERS FIGHT VIVISECTION BILL

Dr. Gillihan and Dr. Ewer in Sacramento to Oppose the Pending Measure.

Dr. A. F. Gilihan, Oakland health director, and Dr. E. N. Ewer, member of the Oakland board of health, have been in Sacramento fighting against the adoption of the vivisection bill, which is now before Governor Johnson for approval. The local physicians are in the large delegation which represents every section of the state and which is at the capital to lend influence either for or against the measure.

Only once before in the history of the Johnson administrations has greater interest been displayed in the final adoption of a measure, and that was when the anti-alien law passed, two years ago. Representatives of scientific organizations from all parts of the state attended the hearing.

Telegrams and messages from distinguished medicos in London, Paris and United States cities flooded Governor Johnson.

Present at the hearing in favor of the signing of the bill were Mrs. Rosamune Wright, of the Los Angeles Humane Association, Senator Edward I. Wolfe of San Francisco, Senator W. E. Brown of Los Angeles, Frank Woodson, Sacramento county Humane Officer, and Mrs. Lawrence Gronlund, director of the San Francisco Humane Society of Berkeley.

Against the measure, Dr. George E. Ebright of the State Board of Health, Dr. M. E. Jaffa of the State Pure Food Laboratory, Dr. Burt F. Howard of the Bureau of Tuberculosis, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, dean of the Stanford medical school; Dr. Wiliams, pathologist of Stanford University; Rene Bine of the San Francisco Medical Association; Dr. Ewer of the Oakland Board of Health, and Dr. A. F. Gilihan, Oakland Health Director.

Vigorous support was given the bill on the ground that it would put into force laws now in the statute books of the state, providing against cruelty to animals, and that it would make it possible to reach men who claimed to be doctors, but in reality were inhumane in their treatment of the dumb beasts.

It was claimed that universities and laboratories would be placed on a plane above this, and that the passage of the law would not interfere with their scientific research in the interest of medicine and surgery.

YOUNG GIRL CHARGED WITH BEING SLAVER

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—Federal agents arrested A. Dellaide Ahl, a young girl, today in connection with the white slavery traffic, alleged to have been carried on by Robert E. Denning and M. Osino at a Japanese fishing village north of Santa Monica.

Secret service men also set out today in search of Violet Turner, another young woman who is said to have been associated with a man giving the name of a British baronet and army officer, now in this country as a war supply agent.

This baronet is believed to be in Los Angeles.

Ad. Men Gather in South in Convention

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—Shortly after the arrival of "Miss Spokane" with delegations from the northwest, Mayor Rose welcomed the publicity men attending the twelfth annual convention of the Pacific Coast Advertisingmen's Association, which began a three days' session here today. TO ENTERTAIN LIBRARIANS.

Plans for the entertainment of the delegates to the American Library Association convention, which will be held in Berkeley from June 3 to June 9, will include a reception in Oakland on June 7, at which time they will be the guests at a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland and later at a lawn party at Mills College. Charles S. Greene, librarian of the Oakland public library, and a member of the state library board will have charge of the program. The delegates will be shown the library and taken through the city hall and auditorium.

COLLEGE MAN IS VICTIM OF WAGER

Joseh Rogers Fatally Injured Under Wheels of Train.

RICHMOND, May 27.—Joseph Rogers, age 22 years, who fell from a moving freight train near Rodeo yesterday while stealing a ride, died at the Craven hospital in this city at 10 o'clock last evening from injuries incurred in the accident. The youth lost both legs between the knees and hips, but displayed great fortitude, begging the medical men not to tell his people at McCloud, Kansas, unless he died.

Just before the end, when the young man realized that death was but a few minutes away, he said that he was a graduate of the University of Kansas and that he had made a wager with a fellow student that he could "beat his way to the Exposition and into the grounds."

The body is held waiting instructions from the parents.

WIFE WILL AID FRANK AT HEARING

Woman Denied Right to Testify at Trial to Appeal to Board.

By Associated Press

[illegible] by Mrs Leo N Frank, detailing her knowledge of [illegible] and actions on the day Mary Phagan was murdered will be presented before the state prison commission here next Monday at the hearing of Frank's application for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment. This was announced today by W M Howard, who will have charge of Frank's petition. Mrs Frank was not permitted under the state law to testify at the trial.

Frank also will be tendered as a witness by his counsel, it was stated. When asked if Frank would be heard, a member of the commission stated that no applicant for a pardon or commutation ever had been allowed to appear in such proceedings and he was not prepared to say whether the precedent would be broken in Frank's case.

Efforts are being made on behalf of Frank to induce a majority of the jurors who convicted him to sign a clemency petition. Another movement urging clemency is under way among Atlanta ministers.

DORSEY FOR DEATH

It was learned that Solicitor General Dorsey, who prosecuted Frank, had filed with the commission a protest against commutation of sentence.

The commission today received a petition from the Georgia Society of New York urging that Frank's sentence be commuted.

Counsel for Frank virtually completed today the brief they will present to the prison commission. The attorneys said the brief would assign three basic reasons for Frank's appeal:

"First, the doubt of Judge L. S. Roan, trial judge, as to Frank's guilt, as expressed when he denied the first motion for a new trial several months after the original verdict.

"Second, the dissenting opinion by Chief Justice Fish and Justice Beck of the Georgia Supreme Court when Frank's motion for a new trial was denied.

"Third, the dissenting opinion of Justices Hughes and Holmes of the United States Supreme Court in Frank's habeas corpus proceedings before that body."

CHICAGO ASKS CLEMENCY.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Petitions bearing 20,000 signatures and asking the governor of Georgia to spare the life of Leo M. Frank were mailed to the governor today by the Anti-Capital Punishment Society of America with headquarters in this city.

Woman Wounded; Couple Must Explain

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Dr. Eva S. Shaver was held by the police today to explain the shooting in her home last night of Miss Anna Johnson, who was said to have come to the physician's home from Ludington, Mich., a week ago.

The girl was found with a bullet wound in her head in the room of Clarence Shaver, a son of the physician, who is also to be questioned by the police.

Young Shaver, living at the Shaver residence, who found the body, but who the police say, failed to notify them until several hours after the shooting, was arrested. "A revolver owned by young Shaver was found tightly clutched in Miss Johnson's left hand. The fact that the bullet which caused her death entered the right side of her head puzzled the police.

Three bullets had been fired from the weapon.

WILL INSTALL OFFICERS.

The Melrose Heights Parents' and Teachers' Association will hold their regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:15, in the rooms of the Melrose Heights school, Ignacio and Congress streets. The purpose of the meeting is for the installation of officers. There will be a reception to both new and retiring officers.

'THOUGHT' HE 'MIGHT' BE A THIEF; SHOOTS

By Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—Fearing to avoid an expected blow, Gail Chapman, a grocery clerk, was shot down by J. J. Ferguson, a police patrolman, early today and may be crippled for life.

Police officials ordered a rigid investigation.

Ferguson said he thought Chapman and a man with him might be burglars. The wounded man said he had merely stopped on a corner to speak with a friend and believed Ferguson was about to strike him.

PORT OF CALL PLANS ENDORSED

Oakland Merchants Reach a Tentative Agreement With Pacific-Alaska Line.

The plan of the Pacific-Alaska Steamship Company to make Oakland a port of call for its ships was indorsed at a meeting of merchants, business men and city officials held at the city hall last evening. A tentative agreement was reached by which a group of Oakland business men will take a small block of stock in the shipping concern as an earnest of good faith in making good the promise to further the interests of the company in its dealings in Oakland.

It is planned that the Pacific-Alaska line shall make its schedule in such a way that there will be cooperation with the Luckenbach line of Panama-Pacific and Atlantic steamships bringing freight to Oakland, which will then be distributed up the coast by the Alaska line.

F. H. Pratt, representing the Pacific-Alaska Steamship Company, told of the growth of the company, its extensive business and the desire to cooperate with Oakland to develop the shipping trade here. The steamers will dock at the quay wall, where extensive facilities are nearing completion.

It was explained that the request that Oakland business men should take some stock in the company was merely to insure the active good will and co-operation of the business interests of Oakland. The amount of stock will be small.

The plan was indorsed by the business men present. Joseph King of the Commercial Club presided. Among those present were Mayor Frank K. Mott, Commissioner of Public Works H. S. Anderson, Harbor Manager W. W. Keith, Harbor Engineer Robert Henningsen; James P. Taylor, George Randolph, George McBoyle, George White, J. McElroy, V. O. Lawrence, A. H. Breed, G. B. Daniels, E. A. Young, E. L. Vander Naillen, Fred Reed, Dr. G. H. Derrick, Hugh Hogan, E. P. Hock, Calvin Orr, A. Salinger, Frederick Kahn, Henry Wieking, Joseph Burroughs, H. G. Taft, G. R. Munsell, Irving C. He was found in time and may recover. In his letters he wished his wife a long life and declared that he was killing himself because of hunger and poverty.

HUSBAND MAY BE MERELY FRIEND

Mrs. Olive B. Johnson discovered today that in all probability she is not Mrs. Johnson at all and that she has no claim upon Thomas Johnson, whose arrest she caused last week on a charge that he had abandoned her. Johnson is assistant manager with a motion picture company, now playing at a local theater, and Mrs. Johnson recognized him in the box office when she went to buy a ticket and immediately had him arrested.

Whether Mrs. Johnson is a proper legal wife depends upon whether the laws of Colorado are similar to those of California. The decisions of the Supreme Court of California are all against her. But in Colorado, as in Utah, it may be different.

When Mrs. Johnson was married to Johnson a year had not rolled by since she had been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from her previous husband. In California an interlocutory decree has been held not to be a divorce, but merely an announcement by the court that at the end of a year the plaintiff will be entitled to a divorce. Consequently, if the laws are the same in Colorado, where the decree was granted and where the second marriage was solemnized, there was no second marriage, as Mrs. Johnson was not capable of entering into the wedded state.

"But I relied on Tom," Mrs. Johnson told Police Judge Samuels today. "He told me that I was really divorced and that we could get married and it would be all right. I believed him and I believed he knew. I thought I was really his wife."

Mrs. Johnson told the court that she had obtained her interlocutory decree July 17, 1912. She married Johnson April 20, 1913. The case was continued today until June 11, to give time for the certified copies of the decree to be obtained and for a study of the laws of Colorado.

Holds Up Operators Then Robs Station

By Associated Press.

GRANTS PASS, Ore., May 27.—A masked robber entered the Southern Pacific Company's station here at midnight last night and escaped with about $100 from the till. He first went through the pockets of two operators, but obtained only a small amount from them.

SPRING NAP EXPENSIVE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—The arrival of warm weather proved costly to Joseph Cunningham, a visitor from Willetts who was robbed of $90 as the direct consequence of last night's balmy air. He had returned to town from the exposition bent on hiring lodgings for the night, when he saw a quiet doorway on the waterfront and decided that it would be cheaper and more healthful to rest there. When he awoke at daybreak his pockets were inside out and his money gone.

Newsboy Boxing Show At Piedmont Tonight

Stars of Past, Present and Future to Entertain Fans at Benefit

Tonight will be the Newsboys' triumph. The little fellows of the street will entertain the right fans of Oakland with the biggest boxing carnival ever held in this city, at the Piedmont Pavilion, starting at 8:15. Ring stars of the past, of the present, and local youngsters who promise to make fistic history in the future are included on the program.

Aside from the special features and exhibitions by famous professional stars and men connected with the game, there will be twelve real contests; a full dozen of the kind of battles that warm the hearts of red-blooded men. In all there will be nearly 20 events.

Foremost on the amateur card will be the bout between Ed L'heureux, known to the Oakland public as "Pat" Larue, and Jack Sullivan. Larue is the amateur heavyweight champion of the United States, and considered one of the best boxers of his weight in the country, not excepting professionals. Larue has appeared in exhibitions against the foremost heavyweights in the world. He has boxed with Jim Jeffries, Gunboat Smith, and many other ring stars.

Of the exhibitions there will be many attractive ones. Frankie Burns, the best lightweight ever turned out in Oakland, will put on an exhibition with Harry Kelsey, the local newsboy middleweight scrapper. Kelsey has cleaned up all the amateurs around the bay in his division, and should give the old-time professional a speedy workout.

"Bubbles" Robinson, former lightweight star, and one of the cleverest boys who ever appeared in the squared circle, will forget for the night that he ever retired and put on the gloves with Lee Johnson, the well-known featherweight. Johnson will be remembered as having put up a whirlwind ten-round draw against Willie Fitzsimmons in the old professional days.

YOUNG ABE STILL HERE.

Young Abe Attell, the Oakland boy who made such a hit in the four-round game in the professional days, has just returned from Australia, and will appear tonight in an exhibition. Abe's only defeat in the campaign was at the hands of Herb McCoy, Australian featherweight champion. In that bout he lost a close twenty-round decision.

Jack Welsh, who refereed the Johnson-Willard match in Havana, will be there, as will Jim Griffin, also famous referee, and Toby Irwin. The latter will head a crowd of North Beach sportsmen who are coming over to see the carnival.

In the amateur card the newsboys have matched the most willing collection of boxers who have yet appeared in Oakland. The boys were picked for their mixing abilities, and the program promises to furnish plenty of thrills for the real fight fans.

PLENTY OF ACTION.

Willie Webb and Eddie Ramsey will entertain the fans for three or four rounds, if they both last that long. The boys are both hard hitters, and neither is especially careful as regards self-protection. The bout will probably prove a decisive victory for one of them. Which one will be the victor is hard to say.

A return bout between Fred Perry and Eddie Green will bring the fans of East and West Oakland into a rooting contest. There is a strong sectional feeling between the factions, and they are both backing their boys to win. In their last meeting Perry received the decision, although it was a pretty close one. Both are willing boys, and should give the fans a good run.

A special newsboy attraction between Jimmy Dundee, champion of the Oakland paper merchants, and Willie Sullivan, who holds the title of "pride of the Ferry building" in San Francisco, will tangle in a special event.

Dundee is one of the classiest mixers in these parts and has a victory over Willie Byrne, the East Oakland crack.

Johnny Conde, the tearing Alameda featherweight, will have a hard job on his hands when he meets Joe Arcy, a rugged West Oakland boy. Arcy put up a fierce scrap with Jimmy Dundee at the West Oakland Club last week, and appears to be a classy mixer. Against Conde he will be given a severe test, for the latter is one of the wormiest boxers in Oakland.

Jimmy Duffy, Oakland's champion 110-pounder, will also be on the card. It will be Jimmy's duty to dispose of one Paul Drulon tonight. Duffy is a Technical high school student and has a record of over fourteen straight victories.

Eddie Davis and Jimmy Cunningham, lightweights, will face each other in one of the preliminaries in what figures to be a hot go. Both are willing sluggers and ought to furnish plenty of excitement.

Joe Souza, from East Oakland, and One-Round Hogan, middleweights, will make things merry for three rounds. Souza is a slam-bang mixer, while his opponent, Hogan, carries a stiff wallop in either hand. A knockout is sure to terminate this mill.

Kid Smiley, also a local newsy, will mix with Johnny Aggresgelo, a Mexican lightweight who carries the title of amateur lightweight champion of Texas, while Joe Wheeler and Bartling Edwards will engage in a three-round contest.

Bouts between Willie Martin versus Kid O'Connell and Jack Hogan versus Joe Rogers will conclude the show.

Gerald P. Beaumont will be referee; Lou Arnstein, timekeeper; Al Moffit, Dick Adams and L. Bremler, judges.

BARNEY OLDFIELD IS OUT OF BIG CLASSIC

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 27. — Barney Oldfield, dean of American race drivers, will not start in the 500-mile contest at the Indianapolis motor speedway Saturday, he announced today. The car which Oldfield entered for the race was damaged beyond repair in practice. The veteran driver then was offered a place on a number of teams, but the cars did not suit him and he refused the offers.

Oakland Has First Chinese Athletic Organization

And now we may expect to hear of more Ah Wings. Not satisfied with the conquests that have been made by some of their more adventuresome brothers, the Chinese of Oakland have gone in for athletics in earnest. The "Oakland Chinese Athletic Club" is the result.

Forty members of the local "young China" have organized themselves into a club for the purpose of promoting physical development. They have adopted by-laws and a constitution in the good American way, and will go in for American athletics.

The few Chinese in America who have gone earnestly into athletics have usually made good, and it would not be surprising if the young celestials of this city should turn out some great products. Oakland has already seen several boxers of no mean ability from the Chinese quarters, and Eddie Chew has made good in other branches of athletics as a member of Oakland high school teams.

Officers that have been elected in the newly organized Athletic Club are: President and baseball manager, Sym Lee; chairman, Franklyn Chu; secretary, Sai Soon; treasurer, Kim Jue; track and football manager, Gumm Yick; and sergeant-at-arms, Alfred Wong.

Henley Too Much for Christian's Men

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27. — The pitching of Henley, who held the Oakland batsmen to five scratch bingles, and the hitting of the Tigers proved the deciding factors in the game here won by Venice, 4 to 0. Henley also delivered a home run.

Jerry Downs' Homer Wins for the Seals

PORTLAND, Ore., May 27. — San Francisco defeated Portland 6 to 3 by bunching hits on Lush. Downs drove the ball on the runway along the right field fence in the eighth, the ball staying there and counting as a home run. Two men scored ahead of him. This broke the exciting ties. WHITE SOX IS CHAMPION PACER AT P.P.I.E. TRACK

Will Durfee's Mare Steps Mile in Fast Time of 2:06½.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27. — A new record was given the Exposition's mile track yesterday. Will Durfee is not willing to have the pacing championship stolen from his stables this early in the season and sent White Sox out to increase the lead of three-fourths of a second which the little mare has over Margot Hal of the MacDonald stable. Until Tuesday White Sox was the Exposition's champion pacer with a mile in 2:07, but yesterday MacDonald sent Margot Hal a mile in 2:07¼, which Durfee considered just a trifle too near to make his honor safe.

Wednesday morning, Will Durfee had his string on the track early and before 10 o'clock White Sox had stepped off the distance in 2:06½. Just to prove that she is a real little mare, Durfee let her repeat with a first eighth in :15, the quarter in :31, the half in 1:03¼ and a mile in 2:06½.

C. A. Durfee, father of Will Durfee, who is not prone to undue flattery of his son, was forced to admit that White Sox is good. The elder Durfee, who in spite of a few more years is the youngest man at the track, had a good morning with Twinkling Dan by Dan Patch and Twinkle. Twinkling Dan has a record of 2:06¼ and at Pleasanton a few days ago stepped his best mile of the year in 2:09¼. His first fast mile of the Exposition track Wednesday was caught in 2:13¼; in the face of one break in getting away. In the next mile Durfee Sr. sent the pretty Patch son a mile in 2:09. The last quarter was in :30½. In spite of the fact that Durfee was trying to take his horse back because his sulky was so low that the horse was striking his hock at every stretch.

Durfee Senior is a boostar for the Exposition's speeding course. "The last quarter is the fastest quarter in the world, without a doubt," said Durfee yesterday, "and the stretch is the longest, I am sure. It is so fast that after trying it out I was confident the engineers had made it short, but with a steel tape I did the measuring myself and I found that it is a full quarter to the inch."

It was not MacDonald's fast morning Wednesday, and he did little more than jog his string except for Laramie Lad which he worked in 2:13¼ and in 2:10. It is the first morning MacDonald has taken the reins of Laramie Lad from Driver Avery, and the little horse looks good. Miss Harris M., a 3-year-old, worked nicely Wednesday but MacDonald did not urge her.

In addition to White Sox, Will Durfee had Rico, Byron, Carl and Miss Rico out during the morning. Rico did an eighth better than :15 but was not pushed for the mile. Byron had a 2:13 mile. Coral a mile in 2:13¼ and Miss Rico, the 2-year-old, had the stand watching her nice movements when she did an early morning mile in 2:22½.

San Filipe, W. T. Sesnon's bay pacer, did a quarter faster than he has ever stepped before, covering the distance in :29. His mile was in :12.

A little spice was added to the morning workouts Wednesday by a match race between George Woodward and Dick. George Woodward was driven by his owner, S. H. Cowell, and Ottinger was behind Dick Woodward. "Sandy" Smith of Cleveland acted as starter and the half was in 2:05 and the mile in :11¾ with George Woodward a winner by a length. Ottinger drove a nice race but Dick Woodward broke twice in the stretch.

C. A. Spencer, who arrived Tuesday from Pleasanton, was on the track for the first time and worked The Proof a mile in :22¼. Spencer thinks the track is too hard and should be worked on quite a bit before the big races open on June 5. The word brought from Pleasanton yesterday that Peter McCormick had worked a mile in 2:06¼ and that there were several other miles in that neighborhood, has roused the interest of the horsemen at the Exposition stables, and they are setting down to fast workouts that are drawing crowds to the west end of the Exposition grounds each morning. Every day shows bigger promise for the big June meet.

SMILIE IS WINNER IN LAKESIDE BOWLING

The "Empire Day" celebration across the bay cut down the representation of Oakland bowlers on Lakeside Park green to one rink, on which three-handed teams, composed as follows, played a match, namely: Robert Dalziel, Sr., W. B. Hepworth and Captain Priddie (skip), against L. G. Burpee, T. C. Robertson and James Smillie (skip), which resulted as follows:

Smillie ..... 000 102 003 1—7
Priddie ..... 111 010 310 000 030 101 110—15

The festivities of "Empire Day" also reduced the attendance of bowlers on Lakeside green on Tuesday to one rink, on which full four-handed teams—two bowls to each bowler—was played. The teams line up thus: D. E. R. Sill, William Chalmers, J. Murray Earsman and "Sandy" (skip), against David Hendry, A. Middleton, T. Evans and James P. Taylor (skip). Both were strong teams, mostly made up of those figuring in the teams defending the annual interclub team championship and perpetual challenge cup, now held by the Oakland Scottish Bowling club, and continued possession of which for the next twelvemonth is in the balance as the result of the pending match with the San Francisco Scottish Bowling club's picked teams, the second in the series of which will be played on Golden Gate park (S. F.) green a week from next Saturday afternoon. This practice match resulted as follows.

Taylor ..... 203 312 022 412 000 139 000—27
"Sandy" ..... 010 000 200 000 122 001 322—16

Yesterday afternoon two rinks, with full-handed teams playing, were opened.

Dr. A. K. Crawford, William Chalmers, "Glenn" and J. A. C. Macdonald (skip) played against Adam Baird, Kenneth Postward, J. Murray Earsman and Robert Howden (skip), which resulted in a score of 24 points for Howden to 14 points for Macdonald.

On the other rink Dr. E. R. Sill, T. Evans, J. Smilie and Andrew Proctor (skip) played against T. C. Robertson, W. B. Hepworth, David Hendry and "Sandy" (skip), the latter winning by a score of 26 to 12.

Finney Again in Hot Water in South

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 27. — Criticism of Umpires Finney and Toman by both teams, which resulted in the dismissal of Manager Blankenship and Shortstop Orr of the Salt Lake team, were the features of the game in which Salt Lake defeated Los Angeles 2 to 1. Fittery won his own game in the seventh inning when a single brought home Barbour with the winning run after the latter had tripled. Score:

AL LIPPE WRITES OF JEFF SMITH

A letter from Al Lippe, manager of Jeff Smith, the American middleweight, arrived here today from Sydney. Al tells in his own peculiar style of the conquests of Smith, and names him middleweight champion of the world.

The letter was written prior to Smith's disbarrment from the Australian ring, but mentions his bout with Les D'Arcy, in which he was afterward accused of stalling. Lippe and Smith expect to return to this country about September.

Lippe mentions his lightweight hope, Jimmy Coffey as a coming champion. Coffey has already sailed from the Antipodes and will be looked after in this country by Dan Morgan.

FAT PROFIT SHOWN BY UNIVERSITY FROM FOOTBALL

CHICAGO, May 27. — Football at the University of Chicago netted a profit of $35,000 last season, it was announced yesterday. The sum represents the net proceeds from seven conference games, after the opponents in each game had received a share of the receipts and all expenses had been paid. None of the local games resulted in a loss.

The gate receipts at the Chicago-Minnesota game totalled $19,075, the largest of the season. Football practically is the only sport at the university which supports itself.

GIBBONS TRIMS HOUCK.

NEW YORK, May 27. — Mike Gibbons of St. Paul defeated Leo Houck of Lancaster, Pa., in a ten round bout here last night, taking the honors in every round. The men had agreed to meet at 158 pounds. Houck weighed 165½ pounds, 10½ more than Gibbons, but the latter refused to claim the weight forfeit.

HOGAN DIED POOR.

LOS ANGELES, May 27. — Years of service on the diamond netted Hap Hogan but $1300, according to a statement made to the probate court yesterday by Mrs. Laura S. Bray, Hogan's widow. Hogan's entire estate, according to Mrs. Bray, consisted of ten shares in the Venice Athletic club, valued at $1000 and a check for salary due amounting to $300.

WINNER OF MORGAN-BUZUKOS BOUT TO WRESTLE IN SOUTH

Los Angeles Crack Wants Chance at Victor of Local Contest.

A revival of wrestling has brought several offers from different points on the coast for the winner of the Buzukos-Morgan match, which is to take place at the West Oakland Club Sunday night.

A match now being arranged in Los Angeles between Dan McLeod and Pleasant Smith has drawn a great deal of interest in the southern city, and negotiations are now under way to match the winner with the victor in the local bout.

A large advance sale is reported on the tickets for the Memorial Day bout between Morgan and Buzukos, and everything points to the fact that wrestling is due for a revival in this section. Since the death of boxing in California there has been an increased interest in the mat game all along the coast. Wrestling has flourished in the northwest for some time, and some crack mat artists have been developed around Seattle and Portland.

Betting on the match among the Greek and Portuguese employes of the market places has been brisk during the last few days. On account of the difference in weight, Morgan is a 100-to-75 favorite, but countrymen of Buzukos are taking all the Morgan money in sight.

The Greek consul from San Francisco has accepted an invitation to attend the match and will probably act as one of the officials of the bouts. Peter Mountanos, editor of the Greek newspaper, "California," will also be present, and will act as one of the officials.

P.P.I.E. Tennis Program Spoiled; Committee to Resign

BASE BALL

by "Billy" Fitz

Two former Seal pitchers, now out of jobs, are in this section. Inman, the Honolulu boy, and "Pop" Arlett are seeking employment. Inman had a brief stay with the Sioux City Club of the Western League, while Arlett was with Spokane for a while. Pop made a mistake, however, in trying out for an infield position, but he had no chance with such lads as Bobby Coltrin, Wuffli and Herb Murphy.

Inman says that "Rube" Gever, last season's Oak, has made a great hit with the Sioux City fans. Just what Rube had under his hat when he signed with the latter club is hard to guess. He was getting a larger salary with the Oaks and besides the Coast League season is a longer one. And he refused to report to the Oakland club because they trimmed his wages a bit.

Ray Boyd will work in the box for the Oaks today, with Harry Ables held in reserve. Boyd figures to win today, as he is a former Southern Leaguer and is at his best when it is very hot. Christian's pitching staff seems to be in working order now and with the hot weather coming round should be benefited more than any other staff in the league. Boyd, Ables and Prough are bears when working on hot days.

Milton Reed, the Beaver infielder whom McCredie had to pull out of the Federal League, is sick in bed with throat trouble.

Cack Henley hasn't looked in as good form as he was in yesterday for four years. The fact that Recreation Park experienced the hottest day yet helped Henley's pitching some.

Nig Clarke, the former Seal catcher, has landed a job with the Houston club of the Texas League.

Dent, the new Seal pitcher whom Hen Berry purchased from the Atlanta club of the Southern League, ought to arrive soon. Dent's arrival will probably mean the release of "Hub" Pernoll, the former Oak southpaw. Hub was batted out of the box in yesterday's game.

The release of Bill Abstein by the Los Angeles club marks the passing from the league of one of the best known players in baseball. Abstein was a member of the Pittsburg Pirates in the days when Fred Clark's bunch were winning pennant after pennant. He was released in 1913 and after drifting around with clubs of the Southern League and American Association Bill caught on with the Angels. He immediately became a firm fixture with the southern team and was greatly instrumental in placing the Angels in the pennant running last year. Bill was one of the best cleanup hitters in the league and batted .308 in 202 games.

He was made field captain this year but suffered a severe slump which he could not shake. Harry Harper, the utility outfielder whom Dillon picked up out of the State League last year, has also been given his walking papers. Harper looked like a find this season and in a game played last Thursday between the Oaks and Angels, he banged out three long hits. However, with Maggart, Wolter and Ellis around, Harry had little chance of breaking in. Dillon had to get down to the 18 limit rule through the return of "Speed" McDonnell, and Harper is the lad to suffer. Buemiller and McDonnell will now act as the utility men for the Angels.

Beatty, the new first sacker whom Dillon secured from the Seattle club, set the Northwestern League on fire this year by his wonderful fielding. He batted in the .300 class also, but Northwestern League pitching is hardly on a par with Coast League twirling.

It now remains for Cap Dillon to appoint a new field captain for the Angels. Either Walter Boles or Second Baseman McMullen are in line for the honor.

"Swede" Risberg, the Venice infant, seems to look well at any position on the diamond. On Tuesday "Swede" played first base, right field and short and got by at each place in great style. Gus Hetling's temporary illness forced Doc White yesterday to shift Purtell over to third and Risberg to second. Risberg had but one chance at second base, but got in the run column and also drove out a sharp bingle. Risberg is also a crack pitcher, for he got his start in the baseball world as a moundsman.

Lee Barbour's hitting featured the Salt Lake-Los Angeles game in the southland yesterday. A triple and two singles made up Lee's record for the day. His triple scored the winning run.

Fittery, the pitcher whom Cliff Blankenship secured in replace of Earl Yingling appears to be the goods. Yesterday's win was his fourth straight.

The White Sox kept up their winning streak by beating the Yanks in a hard fought 7 to 6 game yesterday. The Sox used three pitchers, Faber, Ed Cicotte and Jim Scott. The latter twirled the White hosed boys to victory.

Pipp, the Yank slugger, got three hits yesterday, one a double and one a triple. Hap Helsch, the former Milwaukee star who replaced Tommy Quinlan in left field for the Sox slammed out three safe ones also. Tommy has little chance of breaking in, as Jack Fournier is also hitting the ball hard, while only a broken leg could make "Shag" Collins lose out.

Bobby Murphy's steal home in the sixth inning of yesterday's Aberdeen-Vancouver game won the game for Aberdeen yesterday. Bobby has made a great hit with the Northwest League fans. He seems to be up to his old tricks, for he was a terror on the bags when with the Oaks also.

"Speck" Harkness, also a former Coaster, pitched for Aberdeen.

Four runs in the third and five in the fourth sent the Senators down to defeat yesterday against the Detroit sluggers. Oscar Vitt scored two runs. The Tigers got but eight hits but they took advantage of the Washington pitchers' wildness. Shaw, Hooper, Engle and Gallia were all used in the box by Washington. Jean Dubuc twirled for Detroit and although hit hard enough to lose an ordinary game, his team mates came to his rescue.

All the teams around the circuit will play a double header here Monday, Decoration Day. The Oaks and Tigers will play the morning game on the Oaks' home lot while the afternoon game will be played at Rec Park.

The Boston Red Sox refused the terms offered by Walter McCredie for Bill Rodgers and Bill is thus again out of a job. "Bill will have to look out for himself now," said McCredie.

MIKE MITCHEL GOT SORE

Mike Mitchell is even-tempered and tolerably good-natured.

"Only once in my life did I ever get fighting mad at a fan," said Mike. "That was at Cincinnati. We were playing New York and Mathewson was pitching.

"Matty's fast one and his fader looked easy to me. Three times I hit it solidly and drove it straight at some fielder.

"In the tenth I came up with one out and two on. I never hit a ball much harder. It went like a bullet and straight at Herzog. He grabbed it, staggered and hung on. The ball almost tore his hands off. As I turned some bug yelled: 'That's right, Mike—pop 'em up—keep poppin' 'em up.'"

AMATEUR BASEBALL

EMPORIUMS WIN.

The Emporium team of San Francisco defeated the Battery B team of the National Guard here Sunday. Weak fielding defeated the Battery boys. Stanley Miller pitched excellent ball for the Battery boys, striking out sixteen and walking but four. Other features of the game were three-base hits by White and Oakley. The score:

KAHN'S WIN, 8-3.

Kahn's easily defeated the Winehaven nine at Bay View park, by a score of 8 to 3. "Boob" Miller, Kahn's regular catcher, was forced to do box duty owing to the absence of Kahn's regular pitchers. He held Winehaven down to five scatterer hits, and after the first inning they didn't score a single run. "Ail" Watches, Addie Truck, and "Bunny" Kahn featured with the stick. The Kahn boys played AI baseball, pulling off two double plays and only making one error.

Saturday afternoon baseball is fast becoming popular with local amateur ball players. The Oakland Commercial ball club was organized in 1913 by the "outdoor sports committee" of Oakland's Big Business Club, and has been the means of many a pleasant Saturday being passed in our national pastime. Frank De Lisle is the field captain and F. H. Woodward their manager. So far this season they have played four games, winning three and tieing one.

Next Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. sharp the Southern Pacific team will take on the Commercial Club.

The Commercial Club has lost Third Sacker Frank Gay, who has decided to play professional ball in the south.

Young Tara was tried out last Saturday by the Commercial Club at the difficult corner. Besides putting up a dandy fielding game, he got by with three nice drives, one for two bases. Woodward should advance him up in the batting order.

Claude Zamlock was back on the job Saturday, playing his old position at first for the Oakland Commercials. Claude is a fine target for the infielders, and always manages to get them from all directions. He can lay down a sacrifice with the best of them. Playing ball runs in the family.

Bill Reab, who helped to win the pennant in last year's Bankers' League, has become a regular on the Commercial Club's line-up. Reab bats from either side, is a whirlwind on the bags and plays any position, except in the box.

Al Erie is looking around for Saturday teams to put up against the Commercial Club. A game is contemplated with the London-Paris-American Bank team. The exact date will be in these columns shortly.

De Lisle has such men as Schammell, Yeazel, Harmon, Boldt and Zamlock to draw from for his pitchers, while Crosswaite, Kracke, Wilkinson, Reab and Saroni are a fine line of catchers.

The short measure on the Commercial Club is the hardest to fill. Young Gerlack is a sweet fielder, but has not the experience. Casey Gillis and Frank Callahan are better second basemen, while Jack McKee is so busy with his Great Western Power club that he feels like taking it easy Saturday afternoon. De Lisle has lines out for both Kady and Pollard of the Alameda Elks. Either would fill the gap in fine shape.

Roy Butler and Mark Anthony of last year's Commercials are not playing ball this year. Roy is interested in dairying, while Mark is building houses.

ASHBYS WIN TWO.

The Ashby Athletic Club made a good start Sunday by winning two games, both in the morning. Manager Armot put Schnor in to twirl. Keane caught him in great style and pegged out four base pilferers. He also connected with the ball four out of six trips. Two went for extra bases, one being a triple and the other a double. Wiggins played a great game and landed on one for a triple. Scores:

First game—	R.	H.	E.
Wells Fargo	1	3	6
Ashbys	16	22	2

Batteries for Ashbys — Schnor and Keane.

Second game—	R.	H.	E.
Co. N (League of C. Cadets)	5	11	4
Ashbys	8	13	1

Batteries — Burke and Dahl; Legg, Schnor and Keane.

Tennis

By Nelson G. Welburn

The great tennis events scheduled for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco in July have gone "up the spout!" After months of ardent and conscientious labor the Exposition tennis committee has virtually resigned in disgust at the methods pursued by the committee on appropriations. This committee, comprised of bankers with commercial "glimmers" and sadly lacking in knowledge on most of the athletic affiars has stumped its toe on an injudicious policy of pennywise frugality, and let slide one of the biggest cards scheduled in the athletic realm.

But the sport loving public will not be deprived of seeing Maurice Evans McLoughlin, the world's singles champion, and Richard Norris Williams, second, national singles champion, in action. The tennis committee ever alert as to the importance of this athletic clash is now looking around for a suitable place to stage this particular event, with the University of California, the Oakland Tennis club courts and the California Lawn Tennis club at San Francisco in the running for the honors.

Not only has tennis suffered by the short-sightedness of this committee, but other important athletic events as well. Since they have camped on the job there has been indications of dissension all along the line—and today's schedule of athletic events is a very, very sad looking card. With tennis, swimming, track meets and prize fighting eliminated from actual participation in the exposition grounds, it seems that the only thing of real interest going on there will be the rotary turns of the aeroscope and the raucous shouting of the hula-hula dancers.

The following members comprised the Panama-Pacific International tennis committee:

Dr. Sumner Hardy, president; John C. Rohlfs, secretary; Wallace Alexander, Charles D. Bates Jr., W. H. Taylor, Arthur Chesebrough, W. G. Knowlton, Carl R. Gardner, Sidney R. Marvin, Maurice McLoughlin, Harry H. Haight, Edwin M. Otis, Nelson G. Welburn and Wickham Havens.

The tennis committee, like everybody else, regretted exceedingly this unfortunate state of affairs, but deemed inadvisable further negotiations with the exposition committee in view of their disinclination to brush aside irrelevant details and endeavor to reach an understanding whereby the tennis events could possibly be made a success from a standpoint of numbers and finance. Their inability to grasp the significance of the situation has reflected considerable discredit upon them and has caused a somewhat mistaken idea to go broadcast.

But fortunate indeed are we—that in the Pacific States Lawn Tennis association we have a body which will save the tennis fame of California. This association is diligently at work now in arranging for the events to be staged somewhere in the bay region with everything compatible to its success. So hold back your enthusiasm, ye rabid tennis fans, and two more months will present to you a great tennis treat.

CALEDONIANS HOLD GAMES MONDAY

Sixty individual athletes have entered the Caledonian games to be held at Shell Mound Park on Monday. The entries in the full program of eleven events will give a total entry list of more than 200 competitors. The entries include some of the best men from the Caledonian Olympic club, Y. M. C. A., University of California, Mission High school and Cogswell.

Champion athletes will be seen in action in all the events. George Herine, the former world's record high jump holder, will compete in the high jump and the hop, step and jump. Another good high jumper entered is Schlander of the Caledonians. Pat Donovan world's record holder for the 56-pound weight, has entered his specialty.

Among the crack cinder path men who will run are Kirksey, the speedy Palo Alto sprinter. Dick Hoenisch, the Pacific Association quarter mile champion has entered the double furlong. Emerson Herrick of the University of California will run in the short sprints and the long distance events will star such brilliant performers as Bobby Vlught, Basil Spurr and Harry Bennison.

BOXING NOTES

Young Abe Attell, Moose Tausig and Eddie Miller, arrived from Australia on the steamer Sonoma. The local boxers reported that the game is improving in the antipodes, in spite of the war. Tausig, who managed Eddie Miller on his trip, returned on account of his mother's illness, and Miller accompanied him.

Attell, who is an Oakland boy, had two bouts, one in which he lost to Herb McCoy, the lightweight champion of Australia, and another in which he was accused of not putting forth his best efforts against Jack Clune. The latter will be remembered as having entertained the local founr round fans many times with his clever antics.

The boys report that Fritz Holland is still a great drawing card in Australia, in spite of the fact that he lost his last bout with Les D'Arcey.

Every day more candidates are joining the Tamalpais Club. All that you need to belong in order to get a free trip from Oakland to this beautiful, scenic spot is 15,000 Points. Many are just within reach and not a few are almost at the point where the next subscription will give them a place.

All of the non-competitive trips are given for a certain number of points and these points still count on the big district prizes, and the three grand prizes as well.

There are little trips and big trips, short trips and long trips, trips up the coast and trips down the coast, trips to the snow line and trips to the tropics, and best of all is the trip in the big Cadillac which may be taken in installments, for the machine will be your very own if you make the biggest effort and turn in the most subscriptions. You don't have to turn in more than one more subscription than any other candidate during the contest and it's yours "To have and to hold."

PUT GINGER INTO YOUR WORK.

If you expect to win one of the big travel prizes you should illude yourself with the idea that it's going to be easy for you to lead in the race. It's not. You've got to work and work hard. If you think that $2125 Cadillac, or the $500 Ocean Trip, or the $200 Hawaiian Voyage is going begging you're mistaken. There will be some real rivalry for these prizes, although it looks now as though a few subscriptions would place anyone in the lead far enough so that others could not overtake them. Be wise. Saw wood every minute, for the prize is never won until the last minute is up at 11:59 p. m. June 30, 1915. Put up a stiff fight now and you will be in training for the heavy work which must be done later on. Don't say "I'm going to," but say "I've got to right now."

ANOTHER THING WE KNOW.

Another thing that experience teaches us is that every day which passes and is not improved lessens our chances for success in life. Just so in the contest. Think of the days that have passed since the announcement of the big travel campaign. What could not have been accomplished if you had done as much each one of these days as you did today. Here's the motto that will make you a big winner, get it down as your slogan; memorize it:

"Work each day as you will wish you had at midnight June 30, 1915."

The sun will come up but thirty-six times between now and the end of the travel contest.

Greet the sun each morning with "Good morning, Old Sol; this is going to be my biggest day so far for subscriptions." He will linger a little longer each day and give you more daylight to work by. He's warming up to the proposition himself and seems to have taken a friendly interest in chasing away the rain-clouds for good. "Make hay while the sun shines" and it will be even possible to stack up a few points by moonlight. The main thing is GET THEM.

NOBODY HAS A CORNER ON "INGENUITY."

Be smart. Get everybody interested in your success. Get your subscriptions from everywhere and by any means that is fair. Your grocer, your ice man, the laundryman—at the shop, at the lodge, at school, everywhere. Get so enthused with your proposition that others will catch the inspiration and you will be surprised at the results. Ask for big subscriptions first, try hard for a year and don't take a shorter term unless you have exhausted every argument because short term subscriptions are not going to keep you in fast company, where you will need to stay if you are to win a big prize.

Watch tomorrow's paper for list of winners today. Every day the vacation plums are dropping and happy candidates are encouraged to redouble their efforts for the next big vacation offered on the non-competitive list and for the big district and grand prizes.

Remember—ONLY THIRTY-FIVE MORE DAYS.

Contest Dept. open until 5 o'clock evenings. Phone Lakeside 6000. Call, phone or write for particulars. Full room for 443 candidates to enter and win. Will you be one?

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respector of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing suffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts, put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—Advertisement

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL PAGE OF OAKLAND TRIBUNE

ADDRESSES PAN-AMERICAN UNION

Director-General Barrett and J. E. Davies Speak of Imminent Development.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The test of the good that the present Pan-American financial conference has done will not come for a year, according to John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, one of the speakers today at a general session of the conference.

"If," said Mr. Barrett, "there is a silver lining to the war cloud, it is the development of Pan-American solidarity. No great historical event since the declaration of the Monroe Doctrine in 1823 has done more to awaken the governments and peoples of North and South America to a true appreciation of their common interests."

Joseph E. Davies, chairman of the Federal State Commission, in a speech before the conference said:

"The genius of Europe is addressed to war; the spirit of the Americas is turned toward peace. This council of the Americas is held to marshal the great forces of peace into conditions that make for mutual helpfulness.

"It is suggestive of great promise that the expressions from the nations here represented all contain the recognition of the fact that the permanency of our future relationships and the profitableness of them to us must depend upon the degree not alone of mutual profit, but of mutual confidence which we have in the integrity of the motive of the others.

PRESIDENT BESPOKE SPIRIT.

"The statement of the greatest proponement of peace in the world, the president of the United States, made at Mobile, Ala., a year ago, bespoke the spirit of America in denying the desire of the United States to attain by conquest a fraction of land of this continent other that what it now possessed. The splendid service, the generous spirit and unanimity of action of Argentina, Brazil and Chile in the the enactment of peace treaties give pledge of the sincerity and good faith in the common purposes and ends of the republics of this hemisphere in their dealings with each other.

"Great industrial developments are imminent in the nations of this hemisphere. They will and should be fostered.

"In the financial development arising from international relations there is promise of permanent relations through the establishment of dollar exchange. Dollar exchange differs from dollar diplomacy. Commercial advantage for the benefit of all, not service to the advantage of the few, is the end and purpose of government participation in dollar exchange."

Representatives of the South American Republics on the transportation committee met early today and Dr. Samuel Hale Person, delegate from Argentine, announced they appeared unanimous in their desire for a corporation to run steamships from the principal ports of the United States to South America.

The Uruguan delegation passed resolutions declaring that adequate transportation facilities between North and South America were essential to closer relations and putting itself on record in favor of removing legal restrictions which stand in the way, and favoring aid either by direct or indirect subsidy, or both.

GRAIN

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Excessive rains that meant serious injury to crops gave strength today to the more active deliveries of wheat. The market here, after opening ¼c off to 1c up, scored further material gains in the deferred months.

The close was 5⅛c down to 1c up, compared with last night.

Serious complaints as to field conditions in Iowa had a bullish influence on corn. Opening prices, which varied from ⅜c to 1½c higher, were followed by an additional upturn.

The close was firm at 1c to 1⅛c net advance.

Oats showed firmness.

Provisions took the same course as grain.

Following were the closing quotations:

TAFT CRITICISES CLAYTON ACT

NEW YORK, May 26.—Former President William H. Taft, in an address last night at the annual banquet of the National Association of Manufacturers, severely criticised the Clayton act and the Federal Trade Commission act as "detrimental to the business interests of the country," and denounced the leaders of the American Federation of Labor for exercising a "power that has become excessive and detrimental to the public weal and the good of society."

Professor Taft was co-speaker with Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, who declared that "the greatest menace of American progress is the professional baiting of big enterprises."

"I fully approve," said the former President, "of the principle of labor unions. But the power their leaders have acquired by the principle of combination in their organization has intoxicated them and they have exercised a tyranny over society and over their own members that is certainly leading to a reaction and to a restraint of their great powers within proper and lawful limits.

"They have failed to condemn in any way, as they ought, the use of criminal methods to which in a lawless spirit their representatives at various times have seen fit to resort. They have raised large funds in the defense of men who have proved to be, by their own confessions, violators of the criminal law, and they have manifested a desire to secure in express statutory declarations an immunity for labor unions from the operation of general laws that should be uniform. In other words, they have sought to make themselves and their agents a privileged class not subject to the laws that effect every other man and even themselves when not engaged in labor disputes."

Mr. Taft said his objections to the Clayton act and the trade commission act were that "their enactment with such a blare of trumpets and avowals of hostility to capital in general with little discrimination, had a strong tendency to frighten those whose judgment determines the amount of new investments of capital and thus to restrict the normal expansion of our business due to the reinvestment of earnings."

HOSTILITY TOWARDS BUSINESS.

"The aftermath of a crusade and great reform in our political and business condition and a rescue of the country from the dangers of plutocracy," he continued, "is excessive hostility in legislative expression to success in business and to those who control capital. The hostility has been manifested in all sorts of restrictions, unwise and useless, and the enactment of further restraints in the Clayton act and in the trade commission act were much more detrimental to the business interests of the country in frightening them than in any real effect after they shall have passed the scrutiny of the courts and their essence has been disclosed in the test of actual litigation."

Mr. Taft thought that the Clayton act added but little to the anti-trust act. The trades commission act, he held, provided for a tribunal, whose acts must be subjected to the courts before they had in any degree sanction and enforcement and which might be held to have been endowed with "legislative authority which Congress has no constitutional power to delegate to it."

The speaker attacked the personnel of the members of the Trade Commission "as not such as to give great public confidence in their experience or judgment."

Referring to the provisions of the Clayton act dealing with labor organizations and agricultural associations, Mr. Taft declared that violations of the anti-trust act by such organizations "by injury to business or property of the employer or by the use of what is called the compound boycott, are still subject to civil action, equitable restraint or criminal prosecution under the anti-trust law."

A square deal for business, big and little, so that it will be unshackled, unafraid and generally prepared to grapple with the problems and the race for industrial supremacy, which, he said, would be an outgrowth of the European war, was asked by Senator Harding.

BANKERS ON STAND IN PANAMA FRAUD CASE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Representatives of New York banks were placed on the stand today in the trial of Jacob L. Salas to prove the payment by New York banks of drafts sent from the Panama Canal Zone by John Burke, former manager of the commissary department of the Panama railroad.

Salas is charged with conspiracy to defraud the government in tobacco contracts. Burke is under indictment in the same connection.

Burke has testified that he received these drafts calling for more than $20,000 from Salas as his share of the profits arising from the contracts.

FLOUR HEARING DEFERRED.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The hearing of definitions and standards for various kinds of flour, to have been held in St. Paul, has been postponed until June 5 and transferred to Washington.

BERRIES PLENTIFUL, BUT QUALITY IS VERY POOR

Strawberries were extremely cheap today, dropping to a much lower figure on account of the heavy influx from all districts but Fresno, and also on account of their poor condition. More than 400 chests were offered at $2 to $4, and even at this low price failed to clean up during the forenoon, while only a few of the fanciest berries could command the top price.

Blackberries for some reason are not wanted yet by buyers, and a considerable quantity that arrived from Los Angeles found slow sale at 50 cents to 75 cents per crate, though the quality was fair. Raspberries met almost as poor a fate, as excellent southern berries dragged at $1 to $1.15, while local stock went at 75 cents for drawers. Raspberries on the whole were scarce, as were loganberries, which were disposed of early at $6.50 per chest and 90 cents to $1 for crates. Gooseberries were offered in drawers today, and currants were plentiful at the same range as yesterday. Cherries also were plentiful, failing to find sufficient demand for the supply, though the quality was better today. There were two grades of whites on hand, a better stock at 3½ to 4½ cents and inferior fruit that could scarcely sell at any price.

Vegetable prices dropped conspicuously all around. Beans found almost no sale at 2 and 4 cents per pound and 75 cents to $1.50 per sack. Summer squash dragged at a declining quotation and green peas also slumped to a top of $1.25 per sack, while the canneries were buying at 1 cent per pound. New garlic eased to a range of 5 to 7 cents due to the steadily larger supply, and new potatoes for the same reason slumped to a top of $1.25 per lug for the best grade. Practically the only upward movement occurred in the price of cucumbers. The call for cucumbers on account of the warm weather held firm this morning, and as a shipment of Los Angeles constituted the only arrival, it brought $1 straight per box. Local lettuce has not as yet declined in price because, though the supply is daily increasing, the quality and demand are also improving.

U. S. MUST REFUND MILLIONS IN TAX

Court Decision Affecting Customs Collected May Cause Issue of Canal Bonds.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Discussion of the necessity for a Panama canal bond issue in view of prospects of reduced customs revenues and of refunding millions already collected was revived here today as a result of the customs court's decision which sustained the so-called "5 per cent" clause of the tariff law granting a reduction of duties to that amount on goods imported in American bottoms.

The court also held that the 5 per cent rebate must be granted on all goods imported in ships of those countries with which the United States has "favored nation" treaties, which includes the leading nations. The effect of the decision, therefore, virtually reduces the customs revenues by 5 per cent.

It was said that an appeal would be taken to the supreme court. If that court sustains the decision about $15,000,000 in duties already collected would have to be refunded.

The government, importers and American and foreign shipowners were parties in the suit.

BURGLARS' STRATEGY FAILS TO FOOL POLICE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—When Patrolman Joseph Hayden of the harbor detail discovered a broken window in the saloon of Axel Bjorkquist, 200 Steuart street this morning, he was at first led to the belief that an accident had been responsible, as the frame refused to swing back, being apparently held in place by an iron bar. The officer played his searchlight about inside and saw everything secure. It was not until later that he learned that the bar had been held in place by the firm grasp of William Stanley, machinist, suspected burglar and alleged ex-convict, who sought thus to avert capture.

Hayden went only as far as the corner after failing to catch sight of Stanley, when he met Sergeant Walter Neil. The latter suggested a return to the place and Stanley, who had been leisurely ransacking the interior, was caught hiding behind the counter. This time the window frame swung back easily to admit the officers.

Stanley served a term of five years in San Quentin for burglary, having been released two years ago. He was booked on the same charge and faces a ten-year term.

OREGON SENATORS HAVE CONFIDENCE IN WILSON

PORTLAND, May 27.—Both Senator George E. Chamberlain, chairman of the Senate committee on military affairs, and Senator Harry Lane, in commenting upon the explosion of a mine or torpedo which damaged the American steamer Nebraskan, expressed the opinion that it was useless to say what the United States ought to do until all the facts became known.

"First it must be ascertained whether the Nebraskan struck a mine or was attacked by a submarine," said Senator Chamberlain. "I cannot believe that Germany would make such an attack deliberately. But if she did, there will be plenty of time to talk of war after the fact has been developed by diplomatic investigation. President Wilson is guided by the highest patriotism, and he will keep this country out of the war if it can be avoided with honor."

Senator Lane said: "I am not going to embarrass the president by expressing an opinion now. If a German submarine torpedoed the Nebraskan, I do not believe it was done deliberately. Germany does not want the United States against it."

ELECTRIC TAN? YES! CERTAINLY! ACTRESS' COLOR IS CHARMING

News and Gossip From the Theaters of Oakland

Tanned by electric light? Certainly. That is a coat of tan can be acquired [illegible] that's what [illegible] Vail, charming Hawaiian girl [illegible] the "slave" [illegible] Hawaiian dance twice daily at the Orpheum, doesn't need any makeup; it's real tan. She got it swimming at Waikiki Beach and she keeps it there by dancing all the evening in the glare of half a dozen arc lights specially arranged to burn the tan deep into the fair actress.

"I don't think the tan could very well be put there by anything but Hawaiian sunlight," declares Miss Vail, "but when it's once there the electric light, the nearest possible thing to sunlight, keeps it fresh, and real tan beats grease paint or walnut stain, I can assure you."

Miss Vail declares that the Hawaiian tan is unlike any other, being browner and more uniform, and the electric light, she declares, makes it even more artistic. Several of the girls in the company are taking the treatment.

Elizabeth Murray offered to try it—and Ben [illegible] fixed her up with a lamp. She turned it on, and horrors! He'd made it to throw spots of light!

"He tried to give me freckles!" she declared. "But that'll take more than an electric light. I didn't raise this face to be a war map."

This week's Orpheum bill has several striking novelties. There's the Nervous sketch, "All Wrong," the Dancing Romanos, Miss Murray's exclusive motion pictures and other important features.

ALEXANDRA CARLISLE WITH JOHN DREW, COMING TO MACDONOUGH.

JOHN DREW WILL FOLLOW FILMS AT MACDONOUGH

"The Clansman, or, The Birth of a Nation," D. W. Griffith's spectacular film drama, based on the well known novel by Thomas Dixon, continues to be enthusiastically received at the Macdonough theater, where it is being shown twice daily to audiences that pack the playhouse to the doors. The engagement closes next Saturday evening.

Charming as old-fashioned portraits are, each of the characters in John Drew's revival of his greatest success, "Rosemary." The company to be seen in the support of Mr. Drew embraces the names of many well known players, including Miss Alexandra Carlisle, Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, Frances Landy, Robert Renne, Harry Harwood, Hubert Druce, Helen Collier, Lewis Edgard, Walter Soderling, Fred Goodwins and others. Charles Frohman will present John Drew in "Rosemary" at the Macdonough threater for a short stay of three nights, beginning next Monday, and will include a matinee Wednesday.

At the Macdonough theater beginning next Thursday for three days Chauncey Olcott plays his annual engagement in a new Rachel Crothers' comedy, "The Heart of Paddy Whack."

The role played by Maude Adams in "Quality Street," in which play the actress is to be seen at the Macdonough for a week about the middle of June, is that of a prim, Puritanical little woman who seems to be slipping rapidly in the direction of spinsterhood. The play in its sweetness is utterly unlike anything at present asking attention in the theater and it possesses a charm that will be remembered long after one has viewed its unfolding. The comedy gives to Miss Adams one of the most agreeable roles that she has ever had.

PLATONIC FRIENDS? YES, BUT RUMOR IS BUSY!

Is there another romance brewing between Willard Mack, the playwright, and his former wife, or has the old love really changed to a platonic friendship? This is the question their friends are asking. The charming actress is appearing in a new play, specially written for her by her former husband, at the Macdonough. The bit is remarkably clever throughout, and is declared one of the best things Mack ever did.

At the time Mack and his present wife, Marjorie Rambeau, were reported to have separated in New York, Miss Leone's name was brought into the story. She indignantly denied that any thought of reconciliation had ever entered her mind, and added that her former husband and she were still unfriendly—a platonic regard—would help each other at any time—but as for love—that had passed!

Now comes the new play, and Miss Leone has been busy denying rumors to Oakland friends.

Miss Leone heads a remarkable bill at the Pantages. Ed Reynard, the ventriloquist; Harty and McIntyre, noted comedy team; Napoleon, the "Simian Charlie Chaplin," and several other notable acts are on the bill.

MIKE AND IKE RUN AMUCK IN RUSSIA

Russia before the war is the rendezvous of Mike and Ike this week at the Columbia. The jolly pair are helping "The Prince of Pilsner" to enjoy himself in his own home town. In the garb of adventurous Huzzars the diplomatic Irishman and his Hebrew adviser try to revolutionize the domains of the Czars by introducing a few popular American customs.

Dillon and King's entertainment this week is a most enjoyable bit of frivolity. "If They'd Only Fight the War With Wooden Soldiers" is a novel number well sung by Vilma Stech and chorus. "Fatimo Brown," a catchy air being introduced by Jack Wise, is proving particularly popular. The Russian baton drill as introduced by the Ginger Girls this week, is winning deserved applause. Clever Queenie Williams and the Panama-Pacific Four will appear next week.

THEDA BARA AGAIN IS SEEN AS "VAMPIRE"

An exceptionally attractive bill will be presented at the Franklin theater three days, commencing today. Theda Bara is to be seen in her greatest success, "A Fool There Was," adapted from Kipling's famous poem, "The Vampire." This picture has created a sensation throughout the country and has set a standard for productions of its character which will be difficult to surpass. Other features of the program include Charlie Chaplin's latest comedy, "By the Sea," and the first chapter of the new Vitagraph serial, "The Goddess," in which Anita Stewart and Earle Williams have the leading roles.

Among the forthcoming attractions at the Franklin are William Farnum in "The Plunderer," "Graustark," by George Barr McCutcheon, and "Wormwood," by Marie Corelli.

CLYDE FITCH PLAY AS "MOVIE" VEHICLE

Few stories have such dramatic power as the kind which pictures a woman blindly in love with a man of shady morals. In "The Moth and the Flame," one of the current attractions at the Oakland Photo Theater, this theme is the foundation of Clyde Fitch's drama. The poor little moth is blinded by the flame until she cannot see the fatal perils threatening her. Just on the verge of her great error her vision returns and with the resultant extinguishment of the flame the moth sees her danger, and is saved—terribly scorched in heart, but with her soul rescued from the devouring fire.

The other attractions on the program which plays Saturday evening for the final time, is a film adaptation of the celebrated success, "When It Strikes Home," the cast including Grace Washburn, Edwin August and Murrielle Ostriche.

MOTHER CLUBS TO GIVE "NEIGHBORHOOD DANCES"

Tomorrow evening a "neighborhood dance" will be given in the new auditorium of the Durant School, Twenty-ninth and West streets, under the auspices of the Durant Mothers' Club. All pupils, their parents and neighbors have been invited to the affair.

The Emerson School Mothers' Club will also entertain nearly two hundred young people and parents at a neighborhood dance tomorrow evening in the school auditorium. Arrangements for the festivity have been made by a committee including Mrs. O. M. Brown, the president; Mrs. W. E. Leber, Mrs. M. E. Williams, Mrs. R. P. Deppen, Mrs. H. Block, Mrs. L. Fourmet, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. D. Little. The final dance in the series held this season will be given two weeks from tomorrow and will be a more elaborate affair than usual.

VERITABLE DEATH SHIP NEARING NEW YORK

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 27.—A veritable deathship is nearing New York, according to a wireless message received by Health Officer O'Connel. The message said that the British steamer Dewa, under command of Captain Evans and laden with sugar from Cienfuegos, had twenty-five cases of beri beri among her crew of forty men, and that eight men had died of the malady since the vessel sailed.

The Dewa is reported to have sailed from Havana May 4 for Cienfuegos. Apparently she made that port and departed for New York.

ALAMEDA WOMAN MADE GUEST OF HONOR BY CLUB

ALAMEDA, May 27. —Mrs. Leroy [illegible] was hostess today for a surprise miscellaneous shower given by the members of one of the sewing clubs to Miss Myrtle Sturtevant, fiancee of Arthur [illegible] and whose marriage is to take place some time this June. The affair was given at the F. L. Krumb home, 1226 Fountain street, and those who participated in the pretty compliment to one of the members were Mrs. Paul Marcie, Mrs. James Mackie, Mrs. Vernon Clark, Mrs. Thomas H. Denton Jr., Mrs. Leroy [illegible] and Miss Myrtle Sturtevant, Miss Vesta Wonderly, Miss Irene Davis and Miss Ruth Fowler.

The bride-elect, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sturtevant of Berkeley, and lived in this city until a few years ago. Many friends will extend their felicitations at the coming wedding.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

OFFICIAL-ELECT STUDIES CITY NEED

Commissioner Edwards Probes All Departments as Well as His Own Place.

Interest in the work of the city departments has led Commissioner-elect W H Edwards to set about a thorough study of all the offices at the city hall Edwards began some days ago by studying the police and fire departments, as he may be assigned to the department of Public Health and Safety. He spent three days on this work, talking with captains and sergeants, inspecting the bureau of criminal identification, visiting the Melrose and Northern police stations.

Edwards then turned his attention to the department of finance and revenue, which will be vacated July 1 by the termination of John Forrest's tenure of the office. Edwards announced today that he did not intend to stop when he has completed the inspection of this department.

"The work of this great municipal corporation is exceedingly complex," said Edwards today. "The study is the most interesting work I have ever done.

"I feel that the city commissioners, sitting in council, should not confine their interests and their personal knowledge merely to their own departments, but should have some sort of a working knowledge of the problems and methods in each of the five departments.

"At the meetings of the council I have attended, each commissioner presents his recommendations, and they are generally accepted by the others without much scrutiny. This is all right in a way. But I think that each should take an intelligent interest in the problems of the departments outside his own field, so that he may have an understanding of the meaning of a recommendation when it is made.

"While the recommendations come from one commissioner, the council acts as a body, and should have a first hand understanding, as far as possible, of the meaning of its acts.

"This is not intended as a criticism, but merely as an explanation of my reason for studying each of the departments.

"The commissioners in office have shown me the greatest courtesy in inviting my inspection.

"There has been a rumor, I understand, that because I have visited the council, and have taken advantage of this courtesy, I have gone over to some sort of affiliation with the old administration. This is not the case.

"I have always been an anti-machine man, and I shall continue to be one. But for that very reason, I want to know as an individual what the city is doing, and to pass judgment upon it on first hand evidence. I want to feel a personal assurance that my actions shall be just and right, and not to be in the position of depending upon the say-so of any set of men. I expect to be about the city hall pretty much for the coming month, and to know what I want to do when I take office."

ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS FOR

Locomotor Ataxia

In a very interesting article on Locomotor Ataxia, Dr. Henry C. Story says that drugs have practically no beneficial effect in there cases. He says that rest should be insisted upon, and there should be no worries or troubles. Plenty of fresh air and moderate exercise must be insisted upon, but overexertion is injurious. The use of tobacco and alcohol should be strictly forbidden, and over-eating is dangerous, especially when the food is poorly masticated. The food must be of the most nourishing kind, and the quantity and variety must be changed so that the patient will not lose his appetite. The most annoying symptom in these cases is the pain which at times is almost unbearable. Dr. Story says that he finds two Anti-kamnia Tablets repeated in an hour if necessary, gives prompt relief and rest to the patient. These Tablets can be obtained at all druggists in any quantity desired. Ask for A-K Tablets.

Also unexcelled for headaches, neuralgia and all Pain.

S. P. ISSUES WAYSIDE NOTES ON OGDEN ROUTE

For the guidance of tourists and other travelers, especially those coming west to the California expositions, the Southern Pacific Company is distributing free an illustrated booklet, "Wayside Notes Along the Ogden Route." It is intended to give strangers in the West accurate information about the cities, towns and various districts through which the train passes on its way from Ogden to San Francisco.

"Merely to ride over this territory is to bring one into better understanding of the men who wrested the country from the Indian, the buffalo and the sage," declares the booklet.

The notes begin with a description—necessarily brief—of course, of Ogden, giving the altitude, population and distance to San Francisco; the railroads which have terminal and connections in the Utah city, and such information as that dealing with its churches, schools, streets, industries, side trips, stage lines and rail fares. The same method is followed with reference to other cities along the line through to San Francisco. The main purpose of the book is to anticipate questions and to indicate to passengers features of the route and points of interest as seen from the car window.

On each of the fourteen pages are five or six views, arranged as if printed from a motion picture film, of scenes of especial interest as a supplement to the accompanying text. Altogether, "Wayside Notes" contain just such information about the Ogden Route as the railroad company believes passengers will appreciate.

ZONE DAY TODAY; MIRTH IS RULER

Biggest Celebration of Season Is Staged by Concessionaries.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, May 27.—With parades and fireworks, mirth and every form of that human expression has ever devised for human amusement, all fun-filled into one blend of joy, the Zone celebrated today. Zone day, when the entire Exposition was turned over to the concessionaries, was the biggest celebration held so far at the Exposition. There were no elaborate speeches, they substituted wisecracks for oratory and bombs for epigrams. They preferred gunpowder and red fire to the finer points of speechmaking, and Amusement was king.

From the morning parade on the day was a whirl of amusement, pink lemonade and every possible form of entertainment. The Parade of All Nations, under the direction of H. F. Garver, veteran concession manager, opened the affair. Thirteen divisions of this big parade were headed by Queen Zona and her retinue. Preceding the pageant Sousa's band massed with the other bands of the fair, and directed by the famous "March King" opened the day's festivities.

The day's program follows:

Event No. 1, 10:45 a. m.—Massed band concert on the Marina, east of the California building, under the leadership of John Philip Sousa, to welcome Queen Zona, whose royal float will land in the yacht harbor promptly at 11 o'clock. President Moore and other exposition officials will greet the queen, and, after crowning her, will present her with a golden key to Jewel City.

Event No. 2, 11:45 a. m.—Pageant of all nations, headed by the queen's float. Will leave the Marina after the coronation ceremonies, proceeding westward on the Esplanade. At the Massachusetts building the column will turn back into the Avenue of Nations, then along the Avenue of Palms and into the Zone. The reviewing stand, for judges and officials, will be on the Zone plaza platform. The contest for boys' bands will follow the parade.

Event No. 3, 1:15 p. m.—High-wire performance on the one plaza.

Event No. 4, 1:30 p. m.—Coliseum sports in the 101 Ranch stadium on the Zone. This event will include every kind of race known. There will be horse races, foot races, chariot races, fat men's races, potato races, three-legged races, as well as races for boys, girls and women.

Event No. 5, 1:45 p. m.—International tug of war, on the Zone plaza.

Event No. 6, 2 p. m.—Parachute drop from aeroplane at a height of 3000 feet. Wayne Abbott, aeronaut and Roy Francis, pilot. The munster Fowler hydro-aeroplane will start from the bay off the yacht harbor.

Event No. 8, 3 p. m.—Destruction of a huge ship on bay by submarines. Under the direction of U. S. Army officers. Off the California building.

Event No. 9, 3:30 p. m.—Old fiddlers' contest on the Zone Plaza platform. For fiddlers of 60 years or over.

Event No. 10, 4 p. m.—Slide for life. Zone Plaza.

Event No. 11, 8 p. m.—Grand beauty parade, headed by the queen and maids of honor. On the Zone. "The livest line of languid loveliness ever looked upon by man."

Event No. 12, 8:15 p. m.—Art Smith, the world's most daring aviator, a flight that will make his previous feats look tame. He will write "Zone" across the sky.

Event No. 13, 8:30 p. m.—Ball of Nations' beauties. An electrical display of unrivaled brilliance, featuring maidens from every quarter of the globe. On the Zone plaza platform.

Event No. 14, 9:15 p. m.—Grand illumination of the Zone. A mile of resplendent fireworks, from Fillmore street to Van Ness avenue.

Event No. 15, 10 p. m.—International cakewalk and dances of all nations. On the Zone plaza platform.

Event No. 16, 10:45 p. m.—Parade of comic clowns on the Zone.

Event No. 17, 9:30 p. m.—Her majesty's ball, at the Inside Inn.

Event No. 18, 11:30 p. m.—Life saving exhibition by firemen. On the Zone plaza.

LECTURE ON "MENTAL DEVIATION" PLANNED

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, May 27.—The seventh in the series of lectures on Mental Deviation at the Exposition will be given at 4 o'clock, Saturday, May 29, in the Palace of Education by J. Harold Williams of the Buckel Foundation, Stanford University, on the subject "Defective-Delinquent Boy."

Williams within the last year has made a study of the boys of the Reform School at Whittier, of their intelligence, home conditions and the like. He will present in this lecture not only the result of his study of their mental ability, but a discussion of the factors of heredity and environment in producing the defective-delinquent type.

Mrs. J. B. Richardson, the well known philanthropist of Piedmont, will introduce Williams and will speak briefly of the scope of the Buckel Foundaton, under which he works. Mrs. Richardson was an intimate friend of the late Dr. Buckel and shared in her hope and work for the alleviation of feeblemindedness.

TO FIGHT CHILD LABOR.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, May 27.—"It is the active and aggressive reactionary minority that has defeated the child labor bills in many states this year," is the statement made by Owen R. Lovejoy, general secretary of the National Child Labor Committee, which will hold its eleventh annual conference at the Exposition during the last three days in May.

He added: "The child labor bills, defeated this year in West Virginia, Texas and Carolinas are just so many new arguments for a Federal law. Reaction is fighting to retain the privilege of legally employing children of 12 or 13 and violating without interference even that age limit."

STEALS POLICE LIGHT, LANDS IN PRISON

SACRAMENTO, May 27.—Had James McGee attempted to sell the flashlight he had stolen from the police patrol wagon in any other place but the police station he might have been ahead 50 cents instead of occupying a cell in the city jail.

McGee used good judgment as a salesman in offering his goods at a place where there is a demand for them, but he was not aware that the police searchlights all have a private mark.

After stealing the light from the patrol wagon, which is stationed next door, McGee entered the jail and offered the flashlight for sale to Police Inspector Koening and Sergeant Higgins. They recognized the police mark and immediately placed McGee under arrest.

PRESBYTERIANS RESUME ASSEMBLY

No Action Taken Against New York Presbytery; Women to Be Deaconesses.

By Associated Press.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 27.—The 127th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States took no action yesterday against the New York Presbytery, which supported Union Theological Seminary in the discussions of the last two days. The matter was not suggested and it is thought that the case is finally closed. There was a long discussion on the report of the special committee on the educational policy of the church. The majority report favored a merger of the work of the college board and the board of education and the educational work of the board of publication and Sabbath school work. The minority report opposed a merger.

John Willis Baer, president of Occidental College, Los Angeles, Cal., presented a compromise report advising the [illegible] that the educational work of the board of publication and Sabbath school work should not be disturbed. The assembly adopted the compromise report and a plan for the merger will be presented to the 1916 assembly.

Today the Presbyterian church for the first time, legalized the admission of women to membership in its governing boards, when the assembly committee on bills and overtures reported that 212 and 292 presbyteries had declared in favor of having women serve as deaconesses. They will have the same power in the government of the church as deacons.

An overture restricting the powers of executive commissioners was adopted, as was an overture making a pastor moderator of the board of deacons of his church.

APPROVE ARBITRATION.

By Associated Press.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 27.—The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church approved a suggestion received from the general assembly of the Northern Church now in session at Rochester that differences arising over the case of the La Fayette Church in New Orleans is amicably settled by arbitration or otherwise.

The New Orleans case arose after Rev. John C. Barr, pastor of the La Fayette Church, obtained a letter of dismissal from the Southern presbytery of New Orleans, ostensibly it was said, to become affiliated with another presbytery of the Southern Assembly. Later, officials of the Northern Assembly from Texas arrived in New Orleans and received the La Fayette Church in that assembly, installing Mr. Barr as pastor.

The matter was brought before the assembly here and Rev. Dr. George T. Summey of New Orleans was sent to the Northern Assembly to present the case to that body.

FAMED COMPOSER WILL DIRECT HIS OWN WORK

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, May 27.—Camille Saint-Saens, universally recognized as one of the two greatest composers of orchestral music in the world, arrived in San Francisco from Paris on May 21. He comes as the first delegate of the French government to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition as well as being the guest-conductor of a series of Exposition concerts. He declares this Exposition to be the most beautiful of all world's fairs.

George W. Stewart, director of the department of music at the Exposition on his visit to Paris recently, prevailed upon the aged master—now 80 years old—to accept an engagement to conduct a series of at least three concerts at the Exposition, wherein the greatest of Saint-Saens' compositions will be rendered. In some of these great concerts, Saint-Saens will play his concertos, with orchestral accompaniment by the official Exposition orchestra of 80 pieces, and in others he will preside at the pipe organ or direct the great "Saint-Sens Chorus" of 400 voices, which now is rehearsing the great Frenchman's last oratorio "The Promised Land."

TEACHERS AND CIVIC CLUB IN RECEPTION

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the Piedmont Civic Club will join with the teachers of the Piedmont school in tendering a reception to Mrs. Nicholas Ricciardi, wife of the principal of the school.

A feature of the program arranged will be a lecture on "Vanishing Arizona," by R. S. Wheeler, former principal of the school, and now head of the public school lecture bureau. In illustration he will throw on the screen many slides of the ruins and Pima Indians, as well as a series showing the changes that have occurred in the last 30 years. Wheeler passed his early days in that country and but recently, after 20 years, went back to revisit it, finding a great difference in its aspect. The hostesses at the reception have invited parents of pupils and friends to attend.

SHIP LEAVES QUARANTINE.

By Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—The cruiser Charleston, which was placed in complete isolation ten days ago when two recruits who had just arrived from Salt Lake City, were found to have smallpox, was released from quarantine at the Puget Sound navy yard today. Both men, who were placed in the Marine hospital, are recovering and medical officers at the navy yard say there is no further danger of the disease spreading.

Burglars broke into the home of Eugene Solari, 1091 Alcatraz avenue, and ransacked the place. Jewels and other things were stolen.

R. J. Hoffman reported that his dental parlors at 1416 Forty-sixth avenue were entered and dental gold valued at $35 was stolen.

CAMERA MAN HAS TICKETS SHOWS OPENED TO KIDDIES

The special privilege tickets to be used by the Oakland Tribune kiddies in gaining free admission to eight of the largest attractions on the exposition Joy Zone, have just been received at the Camera Man's office and are all in readiness for distribution.

As previously announced in The Tribune, these tickets have been furnished the Camera Man by Mr. E. W. McConnell, one of the best known and most popular among the big producing managers on the Joy Zone, and a real friend of the girls and boys who read The Tribune. Mr. McConnell has issued a generous invitation to the Camera Man's little pals and he himself is going to foot the bill for the free tickets to his attractions at the Exposition. These big shows, of which there are eight, include the most magnificent exhibitions at the fair, namely: "Creation, the Beautiful," "The Battle of the Monitor and Merrimac," "Captain" (the wonderful educated horse), "The Eden Musee" (representing in wax all the big figures now in the public eye in both America and Europe), "Gettysburg" (an actual reproduction of that great battle of the civil war), "The Jester's Palace" (a place where girls and boys will have many funny experiences), "Melodia" (recently one of the feature attractions in Toyland), and Madame Ellis, a mental telepathist with an international reputation, now appearing in the same building with "Captain."

Any one of these exhibits would in itself be worthy of special mention by the Camera Man, for he has seen all of them. But space in today's Tribune will not permit of a detailed description of the beauties obtaining at each of these eight big shows. More will be told about them in the Sunday Tribune, and the exact location of each, so that every Tribune guest may know where to find them when visiting the Joy Zone.

All the children who see their pictures in the Sunday Tribune will be able to visit the McConnell attractions immediately. And those who send in one Tribune subscription also will have this same privilege.

And now, boys and girls, it is up to you. Pitch in and be ready to see these big attractions as early as possible. Be sure to get the Tribune next Sunday and see if you are among the kiddies pictured in the children's section. It will mean a lot to you if you find your photograph there. In fact, it will mean one of the biggest treats ever offered to the boys and girls of Oakland.

THIEVES POSE AS OFFICERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Posing as police officers, two holdup men robbed Gustave Ekman, a sailor on the steamer Clark, of $20 in coin at 4 o'clock this morning. Ekman had noticed the pair following him about. He had tried to elude them. His efforts were unavailing and on Washington street they suddenly came up to him in a dark spot and told him he was a suspicious character. They said they were searching him for a revolver. He had none, but they took his money and bade him be on his way.

KEPT LOST MONEY; HELD TO ANSWER

Modesto Man Charged With Sequestering Roll of $90 in Bills.

MODESTO, May 27.—William Harris, charged with grand larceny for picking up and refusing to return to the owner a roll of currency valued at $90, was given preliminary hearing before Justice W. H. Hoyt, and held to answer to the superior court under $500 bond. The testimony offered against Harris was by Sutter, A. C. Fingerle and C. R. Scott. Sutter had secured the money from the bank, walked to the Player drug store, then with Dr. L. P. Player, to Worden's poolroom on I street, where the two played a game of billiards. The money was missed after the game, on return to the drug store. Fingerle and Scott, who sat beside Harris, watching the game between Sutter and Player, testified to seeing Harris pick up a roll of money from the floor.

Attorney E. H. Zion appeared in defense of Harris, and District Attorney J. M. Cross for the prosecution.
